I would like to see more short courses for everyday things such as using my computer, cooking, music, drama, art etc. in my local town to make access easier for me.

Question 8

What do you think needs to be done to help people with learning disabilities live more independent lives?

Please put your answers here.

More people should get the opportunity to do what I am doing now: living a more independent life. Since I moved into my flat, 6 years ago, staff have supported me to gain new skills & join things in the community. I have slight mobility problems & sometimes have trouble getting around. I have to pay for taxis or community transport. Some help with this would be good.
