Question 5

What have you done to make things better in your local area for people with learning disabilities and family carers?

Please write your answer here.

The same as you? said and see people with learning disabilities may want to be parents. Training are still needed to help them get parenting skills. The number of parents with learning disabilities is on the rise. It's not just about these parents but also their children. Sometimes parents are not given the chance to see how they can help their children. Parents with learning disabilities who are in contact with the social care often have big problems. For many living in tough neighborhoods that might be the best way to improve.

Question 7

What do you think needs to be done to improve access to better education and learning for people with learning disabilities?

Some people who need support can find it hard to get this at school

Some people can't get jobs

People who have spoken + learn learn to College. Help people to get college courses

And help them to get some skills

Question 9

What do you think needs to be done to help people with learning disabilities get jobs?

Please write your answer here

Not many people with learning disabilities are in paid work. There are a few who have jobs and work 16 hours or less a week. Not many people say there was a choice of job opportunities. People often want to work three hours. Sometimes people use workers' aid changes to their benefits if they wish to. Many people with learning disabilities do voluntary work (it can be paid). People might do voluntary work because it is easier to get a paid job.
