Do the things in the easy read consultation report reflect your views and opinions about services for people with learning disabilities?

(Please tick your answer)

You can put any comments about this question here.

Although the consultation report was in an easy read format we were unable to discuss the full content of the document, we have tried to include as far as possible peoples views that mirror the report.

I would be helpful in the future if the document could be more accessible perhaps by using more photographs and less writing with "key" words.
