Equality Considerations

43. What issues or opportunities do the proposed changes raise for people with protected characteristics (age; disability; gender reassignment; race; religion or belief; sex; pregnancy and maternity; and sexual orientation)?

The proposed changes have a direct impact on people below the age of 18, making the availability of electronic cigarettes subject to legal sanctions. However, the benefits in terms of starting smoking or smoking-related behaviour, outweighs the negative impacts.

44. If the proposed measures are likely to have a substantial negative implication for equality, how might this be minimised or avoided?

The negative impact is mitigated by the potential health benefits

45. Do you have any other comments on or suggestions relevant to the proposals in regard to equality considerations?

no

Business and Regulatory Impacts Considerations

46. What is your assessment of the likely financial implications, or other impacts (if any), of the introduction of each of these proposals on you or your organisation?

The consultation proposals relating to age restriction and availability of e-cigarettes will lead to an increased enforcement burden on the Trading Standards service if they go ahead; and if e-cigarette use is banned in public places then this may impose additional burdens on the Environmental Health service.

47. What (if any) other significant financial implications are likely to arise?

None

48. What lead-in time should be allowed prior to implementation of these measures and how should the public be informed?

Six months lead in time. Public could be informed via information leaflets and posters at e-cigarette and tobacco points of sale and on SG website.

49. Do you have any other comments on or suggestions relevant to the proposals in regard to business and regulatory impacts?
