Hi [REDACTED],
Thanks for confirming, the meeting will take place in Bute House and the diary invite should be with you now.
Many thanks,

Hi [REDACTED],
That's great, thank you. I have spoken with the Chief Constable and he looks forward to meeting with the FM following the CT briefing.
Can you confirm the meeting will take place at Bute House and if a calendar invite will be sent?
Thank you.
Kind regards,
[REDACTED]

Apologies [REDACTED], just to add to my previous email.

I don't imagine it will take up the full 30-45 minutes set aside for this, it is very much intended to be a brief introduction with the FM and the Chief Constable unless the Chief Constable wishes to raise any specific points.

I hope that's helpful diary wise.

Many thanks,

Morning [REDACTED],

It would just be a short 1-1, no specific agenda.

I'd be grateful if you could confirm if the Chief Constable would be able to make it.

Many thanks,

Hi [REDACTED],

The Chief Constable does have calendar commitments following the CT briefing, however, can you give me an idea of the suggested meeting topic and I will speak with the Chief Constable to confirm.

Thank you.

Morning [REDACTED],

The attendance list for todays CT briefing is as follows below:

First Minister

Deputy First Minister

Cabinet Secretary for Justice and Home Affairs

Chief Constable

DCC Jane Connors

ACC Andy Hepburn

Permanent Secretary

Donald McGillivray

[REDACTED]

I also wondered if the Chief Constable would be available for a bi-lateral meeting with the First Minister directly after the CT Briefing takes place, I would imagine this will be for around 30-45 minutes?

Grateful if you could confirm.

Many thanks,
