(d) We will share your response internally with other Scottish Government policy teams who may be addressing the issues you discuss. They may wish to contact you again in the future, but we require your permission to do so. Are you content for Scottish Government to contact you again in relation to this consultation exercise?

☐ No  ☐ Yes

CONSULTATION QUESTIONS

Q. 2 Can you give examples, either locally or nationally, of what you think has worked well over the last 10 years of The same as you?

Please provide any comments and/or examples here

It is good that people are getting to choose what they want to do, and able to do things with people about the same age.

Q. 3 Can you give examples of issues in current work and/or policies that still need to be addressed?

Please provide any comments and/or examples here

Trying to find things to do through the day when everybody is out working and you can't get to places on your own. You need more support.
Future Priorities

Q.10 What future priorities do we need to focus on? (Please list these in order of importance with the most important first)

Please provide any comments and/or examples here

- More Courage Placements
- More support to go to activities
- Organised groups

Thank you for taking the time to read the consultation document and taking the time to respond to the question. Your continued input and support is vital in ensuring that we continue to close the inequality gap that people with a learning disability face daily.

All completed questionnaires should be returned to Sarah Grant either by e-mail or at the address below. The closing date for responses is 30th September 2012.
