Heads of Planning

8 October 2015

Dear Heads of Planning

THE TOWN AND COUNTRY PLANNING (NOTIFICATION OF APPLICATIONS)
(UNCONVENTIONAL OIL OR GAS) (SCOTLAND) (NUMBER 2) DIRECTION 2015

The Scottish Government has today confirmed that the moratorium on unconventional oil and gas developments, announced on 28 January 2015, does not include the drilling of boreholes solely for the purpose of core sampling. A revised Direction confirming this is attached. The notification arrangements are on the same basis as the Direction issued on 28 January 2015.

The Town and Country Planning (Notification of Applications) (Unconventional Oil and Gas) (Scotland) Direction 2015 is revoked.

Yours sincerely

JOHN McNAIRNEY
Chief Planner

THE TOWN AND COUNTRY PLANNING (NOTIFICATION OF APPLICATIONS) (UNCONVENTIONAL OIL OR GAS) (SCOTLAND) (NUMBER 2) DIRECTION 2015

The Scottish Ministers give the following Direction in exercise of the powers conferred by regulations 31 and 32 of the Town and Country Planning (Development Management Procedure) (Scotland) Regulations 2013 and all other powers enabling them to do so:

Citation, commencement and interpretation

1.-(1) This Direction may be cited as the Town and Country Planning (Notification of Applications) (Unconventional Oil and Gas) (Scotland) Direction 2015 and comes into force on 8 October 2015.

(2) In this Direction-

"environmental report" means the environmental report prepared in accordance with the Environmental Assessment (Scotland) Act 2005<sup>1</sup>;

"environmental statement", "Schedule 2 development" and "screening opinion" have the same meaning as in the Environmental Impact Assessment (Scotland) Regulations 2011<sup>2</sup>;

"unconventional oil or gas development" means development connected to the onshore exploration, appraisal or production of coal bed methane or shale oil or shale gas using unconventional extraction techniques, including hydraulic fracturing (but does not include the drilling of boreholes solely for the purpose of core sampling); and

"validation date" has the same meaning as in the Town and Country Planning (Development Management Procedure) (Scotland) Regulations 2013<sup>3</sup>.

Information to be given to the Scottish Ministers of receipt of application for unconventional oil and gas development

2. Where a planning authority receive an application for planning permission for an unconventional oil and gas development, it must within 7 days of the validation date in respect of the application send to the Scottish Ministers the following information—

(a) a copy of the planning application, accompanying plans and associated documentation (e.g. transport/noise assessment), together with the full address and post-code of the site to be developed; and

(b) a copy of any environmental statement accompanying the application or, where an environmental statement has not been prepared a copy of any screening opinion given by the planning authority.

Information to be given to the Scottish Ministers where a planning authority proposes to grant an application for unconventional oil and gas development

3. Where a planning authority proposes to grant planning permission for an unconventional oil and gas development, it must (to the extent that such information has not already been sent to the Scottish Ministers in accordance with paragraph 2) send to the Scottish Ministers the following information—

(a) a copy of the planning application, accompanying plans and associated documentation (e.g. transport/noise assessments), together with the full address and post-code of the site to be developed;

(b) a copy of any environmental statement accompanying the application or, where an environmental statement has not been prepared—

(i) a copy of any screening opinion given by the planning authority; and

(ii) a copy of any environmental report that is relevant to the development;

(c) a copy of any appropriate assessment relating to the application carried out under Part IV of the Conservation (Natural Habitats, &c.) Regulations 1994<sup>4</sup>;

(d) copies of all observations submitted by consultees and all representations and petitions received, together with a list of the names and addresses of those who have submitted observations/made representations (including details of any petition organiser if known). Where 'pro-forma' representations are received, only one copy example need be submitted, but all names and addresses must be provided. Copies of petitions should be submitted, but only the organiser or first named should be included in the list of names and addresses;

(e) the planning authority's comments on the consultees' observations and on representations received;

(f) the planning authority's reasons for proposing to grant planning permission, including, where relevant, a statement setting out the reasoning—

(i) behind the authority's decision to depart from the development plan; and

(ii) for taking the decision it has, in light of any objections received.

4. Where the planning authority holds the information to be sent to the Scottish Ministers under paragraph 2 or 3 on its website, it may comply with some or all of the requirement to provide this information to the Scottish Ministers by means of an e-
