(3) This section applies only to the Scottish Ministers’ and planning authorities’ exercise of functions under Parts 1A and 2.
PART 1A
NATIONAL PLANNING FRAMEWORK

3A National Planning Framework (as amended by section 2 of the 2019 Act)

(1) There is to be a spatial plan for Scotland to be known as the “National Planning Framework”.

(3) The National Planning Framework must contain—

(a) a strategy for Scotland’s spatial development,

(b) a statement of what the Scottish Ministers consider to be priorities for that development,

(c) a statement about how the Scottish Ministers consider that development will contribute to each of the outcomes listed in subsection (3A),

(d) targets for the use of land in different areas of Scotland for housing, and

(e) an assessment of the likely impact of each proposed national development’s lifecycle greenhouse gas emissions on achieving national greenhouse gas emissions reduction targets (within the meaning given in the Climate Change (Scotland) Act 2009).

(3A) The outcomes are—

(a) meeting the housing needs of people living in Scotland including, in particular, the housing needs for older people and disabled people,

(b) improving the health and wellbeing of people living in Scotland,

(a) must contain a statement by the Scottish Ministers of their reasons for considering that there is a need for the national development in question, and

(b) may contain a statement by the Scottish Ministers as regards other matters pertaining to that designation.

(5A) For the avoidance of doubt, this section does not prevent the Scottish Ministers from setting out policies or proposals that relate to the development or use of land outwith the National Planning Framework.

(5B) In this section, “biodiversity” has the same meaning as “biological diversity” in the United Nations Environmental Programme Convention on Biological Diversity of 5 June 1992 as amended from time to time (or in any United Nations Convention replacing that Convention).

1. Without prejudice to the generality of section 37(1) to (3), conditions may be imposed on the grant of planning permission under that section—
   a. for regulating the development or use of any land under the control of the applicant (whether or not it is land in respect of which the application was made) or requiring the carrying out of works on any such land, so far as appears to the planning authority to be expedient for the purposes of or in connection with the development authorised by the permission;
   b. for requiring the removal of any buildings or works authorised by the permission, or the discontinuance of any use of land so authorised, at the end of a specified period, and the carrying out of any works required for the reinstatement of land at the end of that period,
   c. for identifying (whether by means of a specified time period or otherwise) when the applicant may be required to—
      i. make an application for a consent, agreement or approval, or

(b) any building or other operations are commenced after the time so specified, the commencement and carrying out of those operations do not constitute development for which that permission was granted.

(5) […]

(6) Part I of Schedule 3 shall have effect for the purpose of making special provision with respect to the conditions which may be imposed on the grant of planning permission for development consisting of the winning and working of minerals.

41A Conditional grant of planning permission: noise-sensitive developments (as inserted by section 25 of the 2019 Act)

(1) A development that is the subject of an application for planning permission is a “noise-sensitive development” if residents or occupiers of the development are likely to be affected by significant noise from existing activity in the vicinity of the development (a “noise source”).

(2) Without prejudice to the generality of section 41(1), a planning authority—

(a) must, when considering under section 37 whether to grant planning permission for a noise-sensitive development subject to conditions, take particular account of whether the development includes sufficient measures to mitigate, minimise or manage the effect of noise between the development and any existing cultural venues or facilities (including in particular, but not limited to, live music venues), or dwellings or businesses in the vicinity of the development, and

(b) may not, as a condition of granting planning permission for a noise-sensitive development, impose on a noise source additional costs relating to acoustic design measures to mitigate, minimise or manage the effects of noise.

41B Conditional grant of planning permission: provision of toilet facilities within certain large developments (as inserted by section 26 of the 2019 Act)

(b) specify that the requirement in subsection (1) does not apply—
   (i) to a particular building, structure or erection,
   (ii) to such descriptions of buildings, structures or erections as may be prescribed, or
   (iii) in such circumstances as may be prescribed,

Determination of applications to develop land without compliance with conditions previously attached (as amended by section 20 of the 2019 Act)

(1) This section applies, subject to subsection (4), to applications for planning permission for the development of land without complying with conditions subject to which a previous planning permission was granted.

(2) On such an application the planning authority shall consider only the question of the conditions subject to which planning permission should be granted, and—

(a) if they decide that planning permission should be granted subject to conditions differing from those subject to which the previous permission was granted, or that it should be granted unconditionally, they shall grant planning permission accordingly;

(b) if they decide that planning permission should be granted subject to the same conditions as those subject to which the previous permission was granted, they shall refuse the application.

(3) The Scottish Ministers may by regulations or a development order make special provision as regards the procedure to be followed in connection with such applications.

(4) This section does not apply if the previous permission was granted subject to a condition as to the time within which the development to which it related was to be begun, and that time has expired without the development having been begun.

Directions etc. as to method of dealing with applications (as amended by section 37 of the 2019 Act)

(1) Provision may be made by regulations or a development order for regulating the manner in which applications for planning permission to develop land are to be dealt with by planning authorities, and in particular—

(a) for enabling the Secretary of State to give directions restricting the grant of planning permission by the planning authority, either indefinitely or during such period as may be specified in the directions, in respect of any such development, or in respect of development of any such class, as may be so specified;

(aa) for enabling the Scottish Ministers to give directions to the planning authority requiring them, in respect of any such development, or in respect of development of any such class, as may be specified in the directions—

(i) to consider, where the authority are minded to grant planning permission, imposing a condition specified in, or of a nature indicated in, the directions; and

(ii) (unless the directions are withdrawn) not to grant planning permission without first satisfying the Scottish Ministers that such consideration has been given and that such a condition either will be imposed or need not be imposed;

(b) for authorising the planning authority, in such cases and subject to such conditions as may be prescribed by the regulations or the order, or by directions given by the Secretary of State under the regulations or the order, to grant planning permission for development which does not accord with the provisions of the development plan;
(bb) for enabling the planning authority, in the course of their consideration of an application, to require from the applicant particulars, documents, materials or evidence which they consider they require to enable them to deal with the application (being particulars, documents, materials or evidence additional to any which, by virtue of section 32(2), as the case may be, was included in, accompanied or was provided in support of anything in, or relating to, the application);

(c) for requiring the planning authority, before granting or refusing planning permission for any development, to consult such authorities or persons as may be prescribed by the regulations or the order or by directions given by the Secretary of State under the regulations or the order;

(d) for requiring the planning authority to give to any applicant for planning permission, within such time as may be prescribed by the regulations or the order, such notice as may be so prescribed as to the manner in which his application has been dealt with;

(e) for requiring the planning authority to give any applicant for any consent, agreement or approval required by a condition imposed on a grant of planning permission notice of their decision on his application, within such time as may be prescribed;

(f) for requiring, or enabling directions to be made requiring, the planning authority to give to the Scottish Ministers and to such other persons as may be prescribed by or under the regulations, order or directions, such information as may be prescribed with respect to applications for planning permission made to the authority, including information as to the manner in which any such application has been dealt with.

(1A) Any notice given by virtue of paragraph (d) or (e) of subsection (1)—

(i) the terms of the planning authority's decision,

(ii) any conditions to which that decision is subject, and

(iii) the reasons on which the authority based that decision, and

(b) may include such other information as may be prescribed by the regulations or the order.

(2) Paragraphs (d) and (f) of subsection (1) shall apply in relation to applications for an approval required by regulations under this Act or a development order as they apply in relation to applications for planning permission.

(3) Paragraphs (a) and (f) of that subsection shall apply in relation to applications under section 75A(2) as they apply in relation to applications for planning permission.

(4) For the purposes of the application provided for in subsection (3), the reference in paragraph (a) of subsection (1) to restricting the grant of planning permission is to be construed as a reference to restricting the making of any determination under section 75A(4).
43A Schemes of delegation (inserted by section 28 of the 2019 Act and replacing previous s.43A)

(1) A “scheme of delegation” is a scheme prepared by a planning authority by which an application falling within subsection (4) is to be determined by a person appointed by them (an “appointed person”).

(2) A planning authority must prepare and keep under review a scheme of delegation and, without limit to that generality, must review it—

   (a) at such intervals as are provided in regulations made under section 43AB, and

   (b) whenever required to do so by the Scottish Ministers.

(3) A planning authority may make changes to their scheme of delegation following a review.

(4) The applications falling within this subsection are—

   (a) an application for planning permission for a development within the category of local developments,

   (b) an application for consent, agreement or approval required by a condition imposed on a grant of planning permission for a development within the category of local developments,

   (c) an application for any approval of the planning authority required under a development order,

(5) References in subsection (4)(a) to a development do not include references to a development of a class mentioned in section 38A(1).

(7) Where the planning authority make such a decision they must—

   (a) include in the decision a statement of the reasons as to why it has been made, and

   (b) serve a copy of the decision on the applicant.

43AA Schemes of delegation: effect and operation (as inserted by section 28 of the 2019 Act)

(1) A determination of an appointed person is to be treated as that of the planning authority (other than for the purposes of section 43AC, section 47 and section 154).
(2) Where an application for planning permission falls to be determined by an appointed person, sections 27A(2), 27B(2), 30(3), 32A, 37(1) to (3), 38, 39, 40, 41(1) and (2), 42, 43(1) to (2), 46, 58, 59 and 60 and Part 1 of schedule 3 apply, with any necessary modifications (including, in the case of that Part, the modification mentioned in subsection (3)), as they apply to an application which falls to be determined by the planning authority.

(3) The modification referred to in subsection (2) is that, in paragraph 1(6) of schedule 3, paragraph (b) is to be read as if there were substituted—

“(b) is to be regarded for the purposes of section 43AC as a condition imposed by a decision of the appointed person, and may accordingly be the subject of a review under section 43AC.”.

(4) Where an application for an approval of the planning authority required under a development order falls to be determined by an appointed person, the development order applies, with any necessary modifications, as it applies to an application which falls to be determined by the planning authority.

(5) Where an application for a certificate under section 150 or section 151 falls to be determined by an appointed person, section 150 or, as the case may be, section 151, and section 152 apply, with any necessary modifications, as they apply to an application which falls to be determined by the planning authority.

(6) In this section, “appointed person” is to be construed in accordance with section 43A(1).

43AB Schemes of delegation: further provision and guidance (as inserted by section 28 of the 2019 Act)

(e) has not given notice of the appointed person’s decision within the relevant period, the applicant may require the planning authority to review the case.

(2) A requirement to review may not be made by virtue of paragraph (e) of subsection (1) if,

(1) In a review under section 43AC (other than one required by virtue of paragraph (e) of subsection (1)), a party to the proceedings is not to raise any matter which was not before the appointed person at the time the determination reviewed was made unless that party can demonstrate—
   (a) that the matter could not have been raised before that time, or
   (b) that its not being raised before that time was a consequence of exceptional circumstances.

(2) Nothing in subsection (1) affects any requirement or entitlement to have regard to—
   (a) the provisions of the development plan, or
   (b) any other material consideration.

[Section 44]

46 Call-in of applications by Secretary of State (as amended by schedule 2 of the 2019 Act, para 7)

47 Right to appeal against planning decisions and failure to take such decisions (as amended by sections 28 and 31 of the 2019 Act)

(1) Where a planning authority—

(a) refuse an application for planning permission or grant it subject to conditions,

(b) refuse an application for any consent, agreement or approval of that authority required by a condition imposed on a grant of planning permission or grant it subject to conditions, or

Schedule 5A—
(a) makes provision about the making and alteration of masterplan consent area schemes (including the right to request that a scheme be made or altered), and
(b) confers powers on the Scottish Ministers in connection with such schemes.

54B Scheme grants planning permission, etc. (as inserted by section 15 of the 2019 Act)

(1) A masterplan consent area scheme acts as a grant of authorisation for carrying out, within the area to which the scheme relates, development that—
(a) is either—
   (i) specified in the scheme, or
   (ii) of a description specified in the scheme, and
(b) is begun before the end of the day on which the scheme ceases to have effect.

(2) Authorisation granted by a scheme is subject to—
(a) any conditions, limitations and exceptions specified in the scheme, and
(b) any regulations made under paragraph 19 of schedule 5A (read with paragraph 20 of that schedule).

(1) Alterations to a scheme have effect from the day they are made.

(2) Subsection (3) applies where—

   (a) development for which authorisation is granted by a scheme has begun, and

   (b) the scheme is subsequently altered.

(3) The authorisation that the scheme grants for the development is unaffected by the alteration, unless the scheme (as altered) provides otherwise.

(4) But the scheme may not provide that the alteration affects the authorisation for the development if the effect would be to remove authorisation for anything that was authorised by the scheme when the development began.

54E Further provision about effect of scheme (as inserted by section 15 of the 2019 Act)

(1) The right to carry out development in accordance with authorisation granted by a

   (b) carry out development for which—

      (i) no permission, consent or authorisation which may be granted by a scheme is required, or

(2) If planning permission is granted or is deemed to be granted without the condition required by subsection (1), the permission is deemed to be subject to the condition that the development to which it relates must be begun not later than the expiration of 3 years beginning with the date on which the permission is granted or, as the case may be, deemed to be granted.

(3) If development has not begun at the expiration of the period mentioned in paragraph (a) or (b) of subsection (1) or, as the case may be, subsection (2), the planning permission lapses.

(3A) A period specified under subsection (1)(b) is to be a period—

(1) “Planning permission in principle” is planning permission (granted in accordance with the provisions of regulations or a development order)—

(a) in respect of the carrying out of building, engineering, mining or other operations in, on, over or under land, and

(b) subject to a condition, imposed under section 37(1)(a), that the development in question will not be begun until certain matters (which may, but need not be, particularised in the application) have been approved by the planning authority or as the case may be the Scottish Ministers.

(2A) Where planning permission in principle is granted, it must be granted subject to the condition that the development to which it relates must be begun not later than the expiration of—

(a) 5 years beginning with the date on which the permission is granted, or

(b) such other period (whether longer or shorter) as the authority concerned may specify when granting the permission.

(2B) If planning permission in principle is granted without the condition required by subsection (2A), the permission is deemed to be subject to the condition that the development to which it relates must be begun not later than the expiration of 5 years beginning with the date of the grant.

(2C) If development has not begun at the expiration of the period mentioned in paragraph (a) or (b) of subsection (2A) or, as the case may be, subsection (2B), the planning permission in principle lapses.

(2) [Repealed.]

(2A) Where a planning authority grants planning permission, the fact that any of the conditions of the permission are required by the provisions of section 58 or 59 to be imposed, or are deemed by those sections to be imposed, does not prevent the conditions being the subject of a review under section 43AC or an appeal under section 47.

(as amended by section 33 of the 2019 Act and schedule 2, para 5)

(3A) A completion notice must also—

(a) state that a person on whom it is served may lodge an objection,

(b) specify the date on which the notice will take effect if no objection is lodged before that date.

(3B) The date so specified must be a date at least 28 days after the date on which the notice is served.

(4) A completion notice shall be served—

(a) on the owner of the land,

(b) on the occupier of the land, and

(c) on any other person who in the opinion of the planning authority will be affected by the notice.
(5) The planning authority may withdraw a completion notice at any time before the expiration of the period specified in it as the period at the expiration of which the planning permission is to cease to have effect.

(6) If they do so they shall immediately give notice of the withdrawal to every person who was served with the completion notice.

62 Effect of completion notice (as amended by section 33 of the 2019 Act)

(1) A completion notice takes effect—
   (a) on the date specified in it, unless before that date an objection is lodged under section 62A(1),
   (b) where an objection is lodged under section 62A(1), only if and when the notice is confirmed by the Scottish Ministers.

(2) [Repealed.]

(3) [Repealed.]

(4) If a completion notice takes effect, the planning permission referred to in it shall become invalid at the expiration of the period specified in the notice (whether the original period specified under section 61(2) or a longer period substituted by the Scottish Ministers under section 62A(5)).

(5) Subsection (4) shall not affect any permission so far as development carried out under it before the end of the period mentioned in that subsection is concerned.

   (a) every person who was served with the completion notice, and
   (b) the Scottish Ministers.

(3) Before confirming a completion notice, the Scottish Ministers must allow the following people the opportunity to make representations to a person appointed for the purpose by the Scottish Ministers—

   (b) the planning authority.

(4) The Scottish Ministers must give notice of their decision as to whether or not to confirm the completion notice to—
   (a) every person who was served with the completion notice, and
   (b) the planning authority.

(5) In confirming a completion notice, the Scottish Ministers may substitute a longer period for that specified in the notice as the period at the expiration of which the planning permission is to cease to have effect.

(b) that any buildings or works should be altered or removed,

they may by order—

(i) require the discontinuance of that use, or

(ii) impose such conditions as may be specified in the order on the continuance of it, or as the case may be.

(2) An order under this section may grant planning permission for any development of the land to which the order relates, subject to such conditions as may be specified in the order.

(3) Section 65 shall apply in relation to any planning permission granted by an order under this section as it applies in relation to planning permission granted by the planning authority on an application made under this Part or section 242A.

(4) The planning permission which may be granted by an order under this section includes planning permission, subject to such conditions as may be specified in the order, for development carried out before the date on which the order was submitted to the Secretary of State under this section.

(5) Planning permission for such development may be granted so as to have effect from—

(7) In the case of planning permission granted by an order under this section, the authority referred to in sections 58(1)(b) and (3A)(b) and 59(2A)(b) and (2D)(b) is the planning authority making the order.

(8) The previous provisions of this section do not apply to the use of any land for development consisting of the winning or working of minerals or involving the deposit of refuse or waste materials except as provided in Schedule 8, and in that Schedule—

(b) Part II shall have effect as respects the registration of old mining provisions.

[Section 72 – 74]

75 Planning obligations (as amended by sections 34 and 35 of the 2019 Act)

(1) A person may, in respect of land in the district of a planning authority—
   (a) by agreement with that authority, or
   (b) unilaterally,
   enter into a planning obligation.

(1A) For the purpose of this section and sections 75A to 75C, a planning obligation is an obligation which does any of the following—
   (a) restricts or regulates the development or use of land,
   (b) requires the payment—
       (i) of a specified amount or an amount determined in accordance with the relevant instrument, or
       (ii) of periodical sums either indefinitely or for such period as is specified in the relevant instrument.

(2) Without prejudice to the generality of paragraph (a) of subsection (1A), the reference in that paragraph to restricting or regulating the development or use of land includes—
   (a) requiring operations or activities specified in the relevant instrument to be carried out in, on, under or over the land, or
   (b) requiring the land to be used in a way so specified.

(3) A planning obligation may—
   (a) be unconditional or subject to conditions,
   (aa) impose a restriction or requirement either permanently or during such period as is specified in the relevant instrument,
   (b) [repealed]
   (c) contain such incidental and consequential provisions as—
       (i) in the case of an agreement, appear to the planning authority to be necessary or expedient for the purposes of the agreement, or
       (ii) in the case of a unilateral obligation, appear to the person entering into the obligation to be necessary or expedient for the purposes of that obligation.

(4) Without prejudice to the generality of subsection (3)(a), the relevant instrument may provide for the postponement of the effectiveness of the planning obligation to a date specified in the instrument (whether the specification is of a fixed date or of a date determinable by reference to the occurrence of an event).

(4A) A planning authority are to publish a relevant instrument in such a manner as they consider sufficient to ensure that it is brought to the attention of residents of the area or district to which the relevant planning obligation relates.
(5) A relevant instrument to which the owner of the land is party may be recorded in the Register of Sasines or, as the case may be, registered in the Land Register of Scotland; and if the instrument is so recorded or registered then the planning obligation is (unless the instrument provides that only the person entering into that obligation is to be bound by it) enforceable at the instance of the planning authority—

(a) against the owner of the land in so far as the obligation comprises a requirement mentioned in subsection (1A)(b) or (2), and

(b) against—

(i) the owner or tenant of the land, or

(ii) any other person having the use of the land, in so far as the obligation comprises any other requirement.

(6) But no such obligation is enforceable against a third party who has acquired right to the land (whether or not that person has completed title) prior to the relevant instrument being so recorded or registered.

(7) If there is a breach of a requirement, in a planning obligation, to carry out any operations in, on, under or over the land to which the obligation relates, the planning authority may—

(a) enter the land and carry out the operations, and

(b) recover from the person or persons against whom the obligation is enforceable any expenses reasonably incurred by them in doing so.

(8) Before a planning authority exercise their power under subsection (7)(a) they are to give any person against whom the planning obligation is enforceable not less than twenty-one days' notice of their intention to do so.

(9) A person wilfully obstructing someone who is acting in the exercise of a power under subsection (7)(a) is guilty of an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding level 3 on the standard scale.

(10) In this section, “owner” means a person who has right to the land to which the planning obligation relates whether or not that person has completed title; but if, in relation to the land (or, if the land is held pro indiviso, in relation to any pro indiviso share in the land) more than one person comes within that description of owner, then “owner” means such person as has most recently acquired such right.

(11) But where a heritable creditor is in lawful possession of security subjects which comprise the land, then “owner” includes the heritable creditor.

(12) For the purposes of subsection (5) it is immaterial whether the person who is owner of the land when the relevant instrument is recorded or registered was owner when the obligation was entered into.

(13) In this section and in sections 75A to 75C, “relevant instrument” means the instrument by which a planning obligation is entered into.

75A Modification and discharge of planning obligations (as amended by sections 35 and 37 of the 2019 Act)

(5) The Scottish Ministers may by regulations make provision about—
   (a) the manner in which a register must be—
       (i) kept, and
