INDEPENDENT REVIEW ON THE IMPACT OF POLICING ON AFFECTED COMMUNITIES IN SCOTLAND DURING THE PERIOD OF THE MINERS' STRIKE FROM MARCH 1984 TO MARCH 1985.

Dear John,

Thank you for your letter dated 14 August requesting a further extension of time in which to produce the final report on the impact of policing on affected communities in Scotland during the 1984-85 miners' strike.

I appreciate that you will wish to ensure that the final report and any recommendations are fully considered and in line with the 'truth and reconciliation' approach you have sought to pursue. As such, I am happy to agree your request.

Rather than setting a further deadline at this point, perhaps we could agree this when we next meet to discuss your progress. I understand the secretariat are seeking to find a slot for us in early September and I look forward to meeting with you then.

Yours sincerely,

HUMZA YOUSAF
