

BRIEFING FOR FIRST MINISTER

MEETING WITH MR LUO, DEPUTY GENERAL MANAGER PETROCHINA INTERNATIONAL & CEO PETROINEOS TRADING

Wednesday, 22 March 2017

Key Message	Grangemouth has significant economic and strategic importance to Scotland, and the Scottish Government wants to see a sustainable future for the refinery business. Scottish Government values PetroChina's presence in Scotland, and is keen to ensure this is continued.
Who	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Mr Yozhou Luo, Deputy General Manager Petrochina International & CEO Petroineos Trading.• Mr Gong Wang
What	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Grangemouth refinery plays a substantial role in the Scottish Economy, directly employing around 1,500 and around 5,000 when indirect and induced employment are added.• [REDACT]
Why	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• [REDACT]
Where	Scottish Parliament
When	Wednesday, 22 March 2017 at 12:00
Supporting Officials	David Ritchie , Deputy Director, Energy Industries Division [REDACT] and [REDACT], Head of Oil & Gas Policy, Energy Industries Division [REDACT]
Attached documents	Annex A: Summary & Key issues for discussion Annex B: Biography

[REDACT]

ANNEX B: BIOGRAPHY

Mr Yozhou Luo, Deputy General Manager Petrochina International & CEO Petroineos Trading.

Graduating from the Beijing Technology and Business University in 2000, Mr Luo joined China National United Oil Corporation in the same year and has held the following positions to date:

- 2000-07 – Crude Trading Manager, China National United Oil Corporation Beijing
- 2007-12 – Deputy GM, PetroChina International London Co Ltd.
- 2012-16 – PetroIneos VP for Crude and Shipping
- 2017 – PetroIneos CEO & Acting GM of PetroChina International London Co Ltd.

Mr Luo also holds an EMBA from CASS Business School, City University London