MINISTER MEETING FACULTY OF ADVOCATES: 15 MARCH

The Minister is due to meet with the Faculty later today on the subject of the UK's exit from the EU.

The Minister may recall that when he met with the Law Society the issue of arbitration was raised. Just in case the Faculty raise it, I attach, for information, a short paper we received from the Faculty yesterday evening about an arbitration initiative that the Faculty is taking forward. The Vice Dean is leading on this initiative. In broad terms the Faculty is promoting an alternative dispute resolution service with members of the Faculty being appointed as arbitrators, mediators, adjudicators and expert determiners.
