CHILDREN 1ST	Grant for 2013-2015 through the Third Sector Early Intervention Fund	£126,828.00	This project aimed to create a single referral pathway to support kincare families in the Highlands access a range of support interventions. The project aims to work with CYPF with the aim of building family capacity and resilience to support sustainable, safe and healthy kincare placements that meet their needs at an early stage and without the need for compulsory measure of care. Interventions will take account of the diverse reasons why children need to be in kincare arrangements and will include befriending, advocacy, mediations, individual and group work, parenting support, family group conferencing and direct intensive therapeutic support working with loss, harm and trauma. The applicant aims to use this project as a pilot to help inform the evidence base for a larger scale project in areas throughout Scotland.
