Hi REDACTED,

I hope you're well. I'm writing to you as Stuart is away at the moment and I just wanted to check in on a couple of points.

Firstly, we noticed a series of tweets (including this and that;) which indicated that some documentation and correspondence between Teach First and Scottish Government has been - or may be in the process of being - released. It would be very helpful to understand if this is the case, and if so, what documents are being released - just so we can be prepared for any questions that may arise.

In addition, we've seen the positive news in the media regarding plans for a tender process for a new high quality route into teaching. I appreciate there are many priorities and reforms you're driving through at the moment, but I wondered if you had any indication of the likely timeline for this process?

I'd be happy to have a quick call to discuss these if easiest?

Warm regards,

James
