Hi again Louise,

I have spoken with the applicant and there are a few errors in the data that he has given to me compared to the original mussel consent.

He assures me that the boat moorings are all registered with Crown Estates and will get the coordinates for me over the weekend.

He will pass the original mussel consent on to me and I will try to ensure they match equipment and moorings.

The applicant also commented that there is additional consent for native and pacific oysters on Sites 1 and 2 (from his memory) and wishes to check that these consents also are still active along with the ongoing mussel consent?

I also attached a refreshed version of the GIS map of the sites. Is this suitable to send to the consultees?

Do I need to refresh all the maps for each site or is this "All Sites" chart enough to go with each of the 5 applications?

I will resubmit as appropriate.

Thank you for checking that for me. I have just also noticed that the charts you have provided are Crown Estate copyright. For copyright reasons, we are unable to send these to our consultees. Please can you provide none Crown Estate charts for all 5 of the sites?

Dear Stevie,

I have reviewed your applications to permit algal farming at the existing licensed mussel farms at Loch Etive. On cross checking the information on your new applications with that on the existing mussel licences, I found a couple of discrepancies that I wanted to confirm before progressing your applications any further.

Site 2: Sgeir a Chait

- The existing mussel licence includes 3 boat moorings. If these are in the water, or planned to be then they should be included on the new application.

Site 3: Rubha nan Carn

- The existing shellfish farm licence lists 10 rafts however the new application only includes 5. Please can you confirm the number of rafts that you would like to be included on any revised licence for the site?

Kind Regards,

Louise

That was just information provided by the applicant from their original application.

I can transfer the mapping of the sites to another map provider. Which mapping packages do Marine Scotland accept?

Hi Stevie,

Even if the boat mooring are registered with the Crown Estate, they also require to be listed on a marine licence so you should include the co-ordinates for them with the marine farm licence application.

I will not progress any of the applications until you have done your check and confirmed whether there are any further changes to the equipment listed at any of the sites.

Regarding the consent for oysters, I am unable to find any record of this on our system with the information that you have provided. Does the applicant have a copy of the consents that were issued or a note of the reference numbers?

Unfortunately, I am still unable to accept the chart that you have provided because it appears to be the same as the original with the copyright notice cropped from the bottom so I can only assume that it is still subject to the same restrictions. We can accept any charts providing that they are not subject to Crown Estate copyright so for example can accept admiralty charts. If you can just provide one chart showing all 5 sites then this will be acceptable.

Kind Regards,

Louise
