Hi [Redacted – Section 38(1)(b)]

Please see below advice from [Redacted – Section 38(1)(b)].

It's important to underline that Freight are one of many publishing houses that we support as part of our commitment to the long term health and sustainability of the Literature and Publishing sector in Scotland (detailed in our recent review of the sector: <http://www.creativescotland.com/resources/our-publications/sector-reviews/literature-and-publishing-sector-review>).

We do not monitor the personal social media activities of the hundreds of individuals and organisations that we support.

We have nothing further to add to the comments attributable to our spokesperson.

I hope this is of assistance.

Best wishes,

Hi [Redacted – Section 38(1)(b)]

Grateful for advice on the following case for response by Ms Hyslop from [Redacted – Section 38(1)(b)] on the Freight Books issue. I have the email you sent yesterday in which [Redacted – Section 38(1)(b)] lists the books included in the Freight package which CS funds and advice that the logo was wrongly included in the first print run of these books.

Is there anything to add to material you've already sent through particularly on the second question about whether you knew about the editor's online abusive comments?

I have your line that you take no interest in the politics of those you fund.

Input if any by 8/12 would be helpful.

Thanks
