Dear Sir/Madam

I am in the process of registering a company named Royal Resources NG and have been directed to email as the word "Royal" is a sensitive word.

This proposed company has no affiliation to the government or any government department. It s simply a name we have chosen to use as it connotes quality something we believe will favourably position our company with prospective clients.

My father started the company in Nigeria over 30 years ago with the same name and we believe the UK subsidiary should maintain the same name.

Please do confirm if the above reasons suffice in granting permission for our in-corporation to proceed

Thank you

Yours sincerely

Your ref: Company Formation - Royal Resources NG
Our ref: Use of Royal Name
5 April 2017

Dear REDACTED

COMPANY FORMATION – ROYAL RESOURCES NG

Thank you for your emails requesting permission to use the word 'Royal' in Royal Resources NG.

On the basis of the information supplied, I cannot see any justification for giving permission for you to use the word 'Royal'. Whilst it is clear that you wish to give the impression that your organisation provides a high level quality of service by using the word 'Royal', I do not see that as sufficient reason for the Scottish Government to grant permission.

I must stress that this in no way reflects badly upon either the quality of the organisation or its request; rather it is an indication of the rarity with which such Royal Names are granted nowadays.

I am copying this to Companies House for their information.

Yours sincerely
