Hi [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] on leave today, so confirming that you can go ahead and have the discussion with Comms. It's increasingly obvious that we have to go large on this or we'll look a bit rubbish compared with the rest of the UK!

Hi [REDACTED],

[REDACTED] said that you had briefly discussed last week that I can progress this on the basis that we can [REDACTED]. I'm meeting comms at 11:30 this morning to discuss how we pull some sort of package/plan together that can be announced around the debate on the centenary which has been scheduled for 6th February.

Happy to discuss

Hi [REDACTED]

We're attempting to pull together a submission for Ministers on activity and spending during 2018 to celebrate and mark 100 years of women's right to vote. There is a debate on 8 February to celebrate the centenary and we are anticipating Ministers looking to make an announcement to coincide with the debate.

There have been various emails back and forth to identify strategic spend for this financial year and next and I was wondering if you would be able to circulate the most up to date position that you have for 2017-18 and 2018-19 budgets?
