

As you indicate, a Road Safety Audit was undertaken recently at this location and no concerns were raised in relation to the junction layout, or the shared footpath/cycleway. Based on this, there are currently no plans to amend the layout. However, I have been advised that Aberdeen City Council are currently reviewing the cycling provision along the A944 and any enhanced improvements would be considered as part of this process.