Dear Paul,

I am writing on behalf of my constituent, [REDACTED]
[REDACTED] who recently contacted me regarding his concerns about the Scottish Governments ability to control fracking.

He understands the situation regarding the moratorium currently in place in Scotland but is fearful that the United Kingdom government could over-rule this and allow companies to carry out fracking.

I would welcome your comments and hope that you can clarify the situation for Mr
[REDACTED]

I look forward to your response in due course.

Yours sincerely

[REDACTED]
