

Current Good Practice Principles for Community Benefits from Onshore Renewable Energy Developments (published 2014):
Staff Costs This piece of work was undertaken by Local Energy Scotland within the bounds of the Scottish Government's Community and Renewable Energy Scheme (CARES) which they are contracted to deliver on our behalf. The staff time to deliver this piece of work was 30 days, at a day rate of £220. (Local Energy Scotland is comprised of a consortium led by the Energy Saving Trust).	£6,600
Design and Print Costs This figure is inclusive of VAT.	£4497.90
Total	£11,097.90

Revised Good Practice Principles for Community Benefits from Onshore Renewable Energy Developments (due to be published 2019):
Meeting Room Hire (including refreshments): During the course of 2018, three meetings were held of the Steering Group set up to help govern the Review of the Suite of Good Practice Principles (including for: Community Benefits from Onshore Renewable Energy Developments). The cost for two of these meetings is included in this figure, the third was held at no additional cost. This figure also includes the cost of three of the four consultation workshops delivered by the Scottish Government to stakeholders in January of 2019, in relation to the Review of the Suite of Good Practice Principles (including for: Community Benefits from Onshore Renewable Energy Developments). One of the four workshops was held at no additional cost. This figure is inclusive of VAT.	£ 1800.50

Design and Print Costs This work is currently in progress, the figure provided is the current estimated cost for: artwork, project management, publishing services and web conversion. The figure is inclusive of VAT.	£2,661.30
Total There were no additional staff costs incurred during the Review of the suite of Good Practice Principles including for: Community Benefits from Onshore Renewable Energy Developments. This piece of work was completed in-house by the Scottish Government during the course of normal work delivery.	£4461.80
Combined Total Costs for current and revised Good Practice Principles for Community Benefits from Onshore Renewable Energy Developments	£15,559.70