

Statistics News

9 September 2019

School Estates Statistics

A National Statistics Publication for Scotland

~~Scotland's Chief Statistician today published 'School Estates Statistics 2019'. The result shows that~~ The proportion of schools reported as being in good or satisfactory condition has increased to 88.3% (86.6% in 2018). This is substantially higher than in April 2007 (61.1%).

~~The publication Scotland's Chief Statistician today published of 'School Estates Statistics 2019' by Scotland's Chief Statistician also showed that~~ The proportion of pupils educated in schools in "poor" or "bad" condition has decreased ~~from~~ 36.6% of all pupils (around 257,000) in 2007 to 10.3% of all pupils (around 71,000) in 2019.

Since 2007-08, 928 schools have been built or substantially refurbished (includes those with cost of ~~at least £500,000 for primary and at least £1 million~~ £0.5m+ for primary or £1m+ for secondary and special).

~~The figures released today were produced in accordance with professional standards set out in the Code of Practice for Statistics.~~

Background

These statistics are sourced from School Estates Survey for financial year 2018-19, for all schools open on 1st April 2019.

Further school statistics are available within the School Education section of the Scottish Government website.

Official statistics are produced by professionally independent statistical staff in line with the standards of official statistics in Scotland.

Commented [A1]: I know this is different to the wording used in the bulletin but it is how comms like these things to be presented.

Commented [A2]: This should link to the publication on the new website. Do you have a link from the web team?

Commented [A3R2]: Waiting for the link just now. Will amend when I have it.

OFFICIAL – SENSITIVE – PRE-RELEASE STATISTICS
until 9.30 AM on 9th September 2019

Statistics News

9 September 2019

School Estates Statistics

A National Statistics Publication for Scotland

Scotland's Chief Statistician today published 'School Estates Statistics 2019'. The result shows that the proportion of schools reported as being in good or satisfactory condition has increased to 88.3% (86.6% in 2018). This is substantially higher than in April 2007 (61.1%).

The proportion of pupils educated in schools in "poor" or "bad" condition has decreased from 36.6% of all pupils (around 257,000) in 2007 to 10.3% of all pupils (around 71,000) in 2019.

Since 2007-08, 928 schools have been built or substantially refurbished (includes those with cost of £0.5m+ for primary or £1m+ for secondary and special).

The figures released today were produced in accordance with professional standards set out in the Code of Practice for Statistics.

Background

These statistics are sourced from School Estates Survey for financial year 2018-19, for all schools open on 1st April 2019.

Further school statistics are available within the School Education section of the Scottish Government website.

Official statistics are produced by professionally independent statistical staff in line with the standards of official statistics in Scotland.

Commented [A1]: This should link to the publication on the new website. Do you have a link from the web team?

Commented [A2R1]: Waiting for the link just now. Will amend when I have it.

Statistics News

9 September 2019

School Estates Statistics A National Statistics Publication for Scotland

The proportion of schools reported as being in good or satisfactory condition has increased to 88.3% (86.6% in 2018). This is substantially higher than in April 2007 (61.1%).

The publication of 'School Estates Statistics 2019' by Scotland's Chief Statistician also showed that the proportion of pupils educated in schools in "poor" or "bad" condition has decreased from 36.6% of all pupils (around 257,000) in 2007 to 10.3% of all pupils (around 71,000) in 2019.

Since 2007-08, 928 schools have been built or substantially refurbished (includes those with cost of at least £500,000 for primary and at least £1 million for secondary and special).

Background

These statistics are sourced from the April 2019 'School Estates Core Facts Survey'.

Further school statistics are available within the School Education section of the Scottish Government website.

Official statistics are produced by professionally independent statistical staff in line with the standards of official statistics in Scotland.