

Rural Housing Body Questionnaire – RHB18/2004 – The North Harris Trust

	Yes/No
1.	The North Harris Trust is currently on the Scottish Government's list of prescribed rural housing bodies. Is this name still valid for your organisation? If NO , please provide the correct name	Yes
2.	What is your operational area?	North Harris Estate, Including Scalpay
3.	Have there been any changes to the objects or function of the body? If so, what changes have been made?	No
4.	Do you wish to remain prescribed as a rural housing body?	Yes
5.	Have you created any rural housing burdens? If so, how many burdens have you created year on year?	Yes We create approx. 6 burdens each year
6.	Have any other bodies created any rural housing burdens in your favour? If so, how many such burdens have been created year on year?	No
7.	Do you have any future plans to create rural housing burdens? If so, please outline brief details.	The right of pre-emption is a standard clause in any Title we issue. It is possible that additional burdens may be applied in the future, but we have no immediate plans.
8.	How were any houses subject to rural housing burdens built?	Most were private purchase of land and build by contractors

9.	Of any houses built, how many were self-build?	None
10.	Do you have any other comments?	