

Annex C – Extracts from briefing document to the Cabinet Secretary for Transport, Infrastructure and Connectivity from Transport Scotland for the Rural Economy and Connectivity Committee on 5 December 2018.

Route option assessment work on the section between east of Huntly and Aberdeen is also well underway. 2,141 members of the public visited our recent emerging options exhibitions with a preferred option due to be identified in 2019.