Hi Graeme

Apologies for slow response. Yes, this cost falls within the previously agreed budget for 20/21. The total budget was £450k but the team anticipate that final costs will be lower than this from the figures given (£374k), though we may want to build in some small contingency for any additional engagement and publishing costs – and these would be subject to AO processes.

[Redact 38 (1)(b)] is considering.

If appropriate we will reflect a saving in the budget monitoring.

Thanks

Dear Graeme

I attach an amendment to the original agreement between the Scottish Government and the OECD in respect of the Review of Curriculum for Excellence. This amendment includes the additional activity to be conducted on Scotland's approach to student assessment and qualifications in upper secondary education.

We are content that this accurately reflects the work which was agreed in the scoping paper signed off by DFM last week.

For reference I have attached the original signed agreement.

To see suggestions from [Redact 38 (1)(b)]

I have commented on most of this but you will see there is a question at 8.2 for finance and I would be very grateful for your comments on that.

Once we have clarified the IP issues with OECD do you need to see the funding letter again or are you happy to see it at the same time as I forward it to Paul Johnstone for final sign off?

It will be fine for [Redact 38 (1)(b)] to sign the letter as long as you have, and archive, approval from the DG for the expenditure [Redact 30 (c)]

But if you're unsure, I'm sure Graeme would sign it – ask [Redact 38 (1)(b)] to help if you'd prefer to do that.

Hi [Redact 38 (1)(b)]

[Redact 36 (1)]

The grant v contract checklist may help you decide whether the proposal should be classed as a grant or a contract (and it may also be helpful to you in seeking a definitive view from legal colleagues based on the current proposal). This will determine the next steps and give you the assurance that the course of action being followed is the correct one. If it is determined that the review is a contract for services, then we will of course consider your NCA request as quickly as possible and I'd be happy to chat through those steps in more detail if that would be helpful.

DFM has asked the OECD to undertake an independent review of Curriculum for Excellence and we are to pay them €347 euros over 2020/2021 to carry out this work. The OECD carried out a similar review of CfE in 2015 and there was a commitment given at the time for them to come back and review the Senior Phase at a later date.
