We received the email below and these attachments last night. This comprises 1 of 3 emails from Fife Council submitting missing appeal documents. Eight documents in total were missing from the submission made by the Council a week ago. This is almost a third of the documents the Council is relying upon to make its case.

These documents have been received 6 days after the deadline for submission, which in turn was two days after the original deadline for the Council's submissions. The Reporter will be aware of our criticisms of the Council's performance throughout this process. Can you please confirm that we will have extra time to review this material and if so how long?

{REDACTED} we have received only 2 of the 3 emails. Can you please confirm if and when the third will be sent.

Dear {REDACTED}

My colleague {REDACTED} received your Council's response form and documents for case 18/03568/PPP on 22 May 2020, many thanks.

It appears that documents named FC01 – FC08 are missing. I have attached the document list which details what the documents are named. Could you please double check and if appropriate forward them onto me?

Kind regards

FC07 is attached to the E-mail 2 of 2 I just sent you. The document is 10MB so if you have a limit on the size of attachments you can receive then it won't have come through. Also, link to the document below on the Fife Council website:
