Dear (Redacted)

Thank you for your email addressed to the First Minister. I have been asked to reply.

Any form of hate crime or prejudice, including racial hatred, is completely unacceptable and will not be tolerated. Hate crime has hugely damaging effects on victims, their families and communities. We all must play our part to challenge it.

Understandably, Covid-19 has heightened the feelings of fear and uncertainty within our communities. It is therefore now more important than ever to stand united to tackle all forms of hatred and prejudice to reassure our communities that tackling hate crime is a priority. We are continuing to work with Police Scotland, who are monitoring the situation, to better understand the current position in relation to reported and unreported hate crimes.

We encourage anyone who has experienced or witnessed a hate crime to report it to the police or by using one of the many third party reporting centres across Scotland, details of which are on Police Scotland's website.

Yours sincerely

Dear First Minister,

Attached please find an article and related video. The article in LANCET dated 24 Jan 2020 which the interviewee, Richard Horton refers to is written by a group of Chinese medical people in the initial stage of COVID-19. I think most of the Chinese here are glad to learn this information. Some groundless allegation against China that directly have negative impact affecting Chinese community can be erased.

We are very thankful for your effort to deal with Pandemic, which saves a lot of lives. We are also very grateful for your support to our Chinese Community.

Kind regards,

ANNEX B

Hong Kong Scottish Rugby Football Club

- HKS RFC is an engagement with Scots and those with an affinity to Scotland and rugby to promote the game in Hong Kong. The club has taken over Nomads RFC who are a predominantly made up of local Hong Kong residents.
- Offers opportunities for young Scottish rugby players to relocate to Hong Kong for rugby and work and for the local Hong Kong community players to learn from these players. HKS have introduced a mentoring system whereby the expatriate players will be buddied up with the local players to develop their understanding of rugby.
- The club has signed 5 ex-Scotland under 20 internationalists for the coming season, including (Redacted) who played for Scotland at HK 7s this year.
- Creates a connection with the local Hong Kong community and the Scottish Community. Of the current membership of 140 people, roughly 100 are local Hong Kong residents.
- HK Scottish will compete at Melrose 7s, the home of 7s, for the second year on 14th April, 2012.
- HK Scottish played its first rugby game in Hong Kong on 20th August, 2011 at Hong Kong Scottish Day. The tournament featured 15 of the top teams in HK playing in a ten-a-side format, as well as a team from Guangzhou.
- (Redacted) a GlobalScot, is the Official Ambassador of Hong Kong Scottish RFC, as well as (Redacted) (Redacted) and (Redacted)
- Strong links with the Hong Kong St Andrews Society
- Two of the Hong Kong Scottish players, (Redacted)..... and (Redacted) conduct training sessions weekly with two deaf schools, Chun Tok School and Lutheran School for the Deaf as well as the Sarah Roe School for children with disabilities.

Scottish Opera in Hong Kong

- Scottish Opera will take a multi-art form team of artists to Hong Kong. They will work with around 150 pupils and teachers drawn from the schools across the English Schools Foundation network during the course of one week between Mon 19 - Fri 22 September 2011.
- They will use Bizet's Carmen to provide a creative structure in which the young people can develop their own musical, dramatic and visual responses to the original material but reflecting their own contemporary, cultural and social attitudes and experiences.
- This work will culminate in two performances at the Hong Kong Academy of Performing Arts on Friday 23rd September. The project is being entirely funded by the English Schools Foundation.

Our ref: 2014/0034380
November 2014

Dear (Redacted)

Thank you for your kind invitation to the Deputy First Minister of 28 October, asking her to attend a Chinese New Year Celebration Dinner in Glasgow in February 2015. Regrettably, due to considerable diary pressures during that month, the Deputy First Minister will be unable to attend the dinner.

With the Year of the Horse nearing an end, 2014 can be seen as a year where Scotland and China's relationship has continued to grow. Our economic ties are strong, with Scottish firms in the oil and gas and construction sectors benefitting from deals with Chinese investors and our bonds across the diplomatic, cultural and educational spheres continue to go from strength to strength. This is a deepening friendship that is appreciated on both sides. The First Minister paid a highly successful visit to China in November last year, where he was met with the warm hospitality of the Chinese people.

As we are soon to move into the Year of the Sheep, the Deputy First Minister passes on her very best wishes for good fortune and a Happy New Year.

Hi, (Redacted)

Grateful if this could be put on maccs as a diary case for Ms Sturgeon. This invite was passed on by (Redacted) and is directed to Ms Sturgeon as FM elect. The invitation is for some time in February 2015, however, the date can be flexible. If the action officer requires further information we can help by contacting (Redacted) from (Redacted) office, as he has recently met with the organisation.

We do not need this invite fast tracked as such, but would appreciate if this could be actioned promptly, rather than working to the usual 20 day time scale.

Many thanks,

Beth,

Here is an electronic copy of the letter that (Redacted) brought over this afternoon with an attachment photo of Mr Salmond at the "August Moon" celebration that is mentioned in the e-mail below, if there are any questions regarding the possibility of moving the Chinese New Year Celebration date. I met with both the (Redacted) (Redacted) (Redacted) behalf earlier this week and will be happy to explain the circumstance that enable them to do so.

Hello (Redacted)

(Redacted) (Redacted) (Redacted)
(Redacted) are planning a Chinese New Year Celebration in February 2015 in the Loon Fung Restaurant in Glasgow. We sincerely wish to invite the First Minister, deputy FM, if possible, the then former First Minister and (Redacted) and other guest we spoke of to join our celebration.

The occasion will be have members from a cross section of our Chinese communities and representing various Chinese societies and organizations from around (the city or the country) as well as some respected individuals.

was successful in hosting the August Moon Festival Celebration dinner in September 2014, when the First Minister of Scotland Mr Salmond, honoured us with his presence. Recently, we helped host the celebration, 'Year of China', when the Chinese Overseas Department and Fujian Province came to Scotland to participate in the Culture Camp, teaching Scottish children Chinese Culture and traditional dance and Tai Chi. (Redacted) (Redacted)

We are also about commerce, networking companies and individuals to source and export from Scotland. Through our members and friends we have promoted Scottish and UK educational institutes to China, with students studying at various levels from (Redacted) (Redacted) (Redacted) to enable them to know how to cultivate links that can either help with local issues and integration, to organising meetings within the business community.

(Redacted) (Redacted) (Redacted)

It comprises professionals and specialists in all academic fields, promotes both academic and interpersonal communication across a vast range of diverse and varied subjects within the academic and business world with collaboration between the Association and Universities, Institutes and Companies in Scotland and China and indeed globally.

(Redacted) (Redacted) (Redacted)
(Redacted) (Redacted) (Redacted)

Our members are Chinese doctoral students and doctors from Scottish Universities and also lecturers and professors of these institutes.

It will be a very diverse gathering all there to celebrate the year of the Ram. There will also be distinguished friends from our Asian and Muslim communities as well as some African Nations and of course from Europe. We will invite the (Redacted) (Redacted) and also officials from Bank of China. I have listed a few of the Organizations involved for your reference and enclosed a few pictures from different events.

On the night we will have traditional Chinese fare and the entertainment will be Chinese entertainers and Lion Dancing.

It will be our greatest honour to have the First Minister and Deputy First Minister of Scotland to celebrate Chinese New Year with us. This will be a fantastic opportunity for the First Minister to experience this culture event and to get to know the diverse Chinese community in Scotland.

I have included a list of our community organisation

23 December 2019

Dear (Redacted)

Thank you for your email of 17 December, inviting the First Minister to attend a Chinese New Year dinner on 6 February in Glasgow.

Unfortunately, due to existing commitments, the First Minister is unable to accept your kind invitation on this occasion. She has asked me to pass on her best wishes for a successful event. She would also like to wish you and the organisations attending, a very happy and prosperous Year of the Rat.

Yours sincerely,

Dear First Minister

Congratulations to you and your party colleagues for the tremendous result in the General Election.

On behalf of myself and fellow Chinese Associations, we would be honoured if you would accept an invitation to our Chinese New Year dinner.

I have included a list of our Associations, organisations and Community leaders who will be present that evening.
