

ENGAGEMENT REPORT
Minister	Patrick Harvie ( PH ) Minister for Zero Carbon Buildings, Active Travel, and Tenants' Rights
Type of engagement	Meeting with the Holbæk Kommune
Date	13 April 2023
Who	[Redacted] Lord Mayor of Holbæk [Redacted] [Redacted]
Key Points	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• [Redacted] began by welcoming PH to Holbæk, and providing an overview of Holkbæk's journey towards district heating [redacted]. [Redacted].</li> <li>• PH asked about public perceptions in Holbæk towards district heating – [Redacted] confirmed this was a key dynamic across various levels, from within the administration of the municipality itself / with local counsellors, down to the level of the general public [redacted].</li> <li>• [Redacted]</li> <li>• [Redacted]</li> <li>• [Redacted] and [redacted] then gave an overview of the latest developments in Holbæk's district heating planning:               <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>○ [redacted]</li> </ul> </li> <li>• PH asked about the interplay of heat pump acquisition by individual households and the roll-out of district heating: [redacted].</li> <li>• The meeting concluded with a reflection that, unlike places like Copenhagen who have had extensive district heating networks for years, it feels like Holbæk is closer to some Scottish communities in regards to their own district heating planning.</li> </ul>
Actions	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• [Redacted]</li> </ul>
Comment	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• [Redacted] – out of scope</li> </ul>
Attending Official	[Redacted] [Redacted] [Redacted] Senior Policy Advisor [Redacted] Private Secretary
Copy List	Minister for Zero Carbon Buildings, Active Travel, and Tenants' Rights Cabinet Secretary for Net Zero and Just Transition Cabinet Secretary for Constitution, External Affairs and Culture Minister for Energy SpAds Admin Scott Wightman Kersti Berge Frank Strang Donna MacKinnon Sue Kearns Catherine Williams [Remaining list redacted]