Subject: Invitation to attend the UK Farm to Fork Summit at 10 Downing Street – Tuesday 16th May 2023 [OFFICIAL]

Dear George Burgess

On 16th May, the Prime Minister will host the UK Farm to Fork Summit at 10 Downing Street, recognising the crucial importance of domestic food producers to our nation and exploring further opportunities for sustainable growth for one of our biggest economic sectors.

Across the food chain, the food industry continues to show extraordinary resilience, delivering safe, healthy food across the UK on a daily basis.

Recent challenges in the supply of fruit and vegetables show that we must continue to work together at every stage of the food system, from farming to manufacturing, distribution and retail.

You are invited to join the UK Farm to Fork Summit which will focus on how government and industry can work together to bring great British food to the world, build resilience and transparency across the supply chain, strengthen sustainability and productivity, and support innovation and skills.

Please confirm your attendance at: rsvp6@no10.gov.uk

Date: Tuesday 16th May

Time: 09:30-13:00
