

Annex B

Section 30(b)(ii) – free and frank exchange of views for the purposes of deliberation

An exemption under section 30(b)(ii) of FOISA (free and frank exchange of views) applies to some of the information requested. This exemption applies because disclosure would, or would be likely to, inhibit substantially the free and frank exchange of views for the purposes of deliberation. This exemption recognises the need for Ministers and officials to have a private space within which to discuss and explore options before the Scottish Government reaches a settled public view. Disclosing the content of free and frank discussions on the future currency of an independent Scotland will substantially inhibit such discussions in the future, particularly because these discussions are still ongoing and final decisions have not been taken, and these discussions relate to a sensitive or controversial issue such as Scotland's constitutional future.
