Subject: RE: Meeting with Redacted under s.38(1)(b) (personal information), Bank of England

Hi Redacted under s.38(1)(b) (personal information),

I'm doing well thanks – I hope you also managed to get a decent break (where did it go?)

Apologies for the delay in coming back to you as I realise you emailed before Christmas asking about our publication dates and ideas for meeting dates.

In terms of meeting Redacted under s.38(1)(b) (personal information) in January, I can do 21st at 2pm if that suits?

I'll have a look on Monday at when would generally be good times during the months ahead to meet, so that we are likely to have recent data to discuss.

Will be in touch further next week.

Many thanks!

Subject: Meeting with Redacted under s.38(1)(b) (personal information), Bank of England

Hi Redacted under s.38(1)(b) (personal information)

Hope you managed to have a break over Christmas and New Year (it seems like a long time ago). I am aware I haven't scheduled the meetings for this year yet but to start the ball rolling would you be available for an MS Teams meeting with Redacted under s.38(1)(b) (personal information) on either Thursday 21 January at 2pm or Tuesday 26 January at 11am? If neither of these work for you I can look for alternatives.

Best wishes

Hi Redacted under s.38(1)(b) (personal information),

No problem – I know what you mean!

The 22nd at 11am works for me. Would you be able to send me a teams invite please and I'll forward it on to Redacted under s.38(1)(b) (personal information) (who has just joined my team) and Redacted under s.38(1)(b) (personal information) (who regularly attends the meeting) so that they can join too?

Hi Redacted under s.38(1)(b) (personal information),

Sincere apologies for the delay in replying on this.

Yes, 11 - 12 on the 4th March suits me fine. Absolutely happy for Redacted under s.38(1)(b) (personal information) to join. I also mentioned to Redacted under s.38(1)(b) (personal information) at our last meeting that it might be quite useful if a person from our business analysis team and our trade analysis team also join these calls if they're available. So if it's ok, I'll forward on the teams invite when I receive.

In terms of future meeting dates, I had a look at our key releases (with a focus on GDP) and we publish these monthly, usually towards the end of the month. Was thinking perhaps we could try and schedule for Thursday mornings, towards the end of the month/or at the start of a month every 6 – 8 weeks? Not sure how that suits from your side? Would also be keen to tie in with Agent Reports/MPC publication material where possible so they can be part of the discussion.

Let me know what you think and we can see if we can schedule some dates.

Many thanks.

Hi Redacted under s.38(1)(b) (personal information)

Was just looking to get the next date in the diary for the meeting with Redacted under s.38(1)(b) (personal information)? Would Thursday 4 March at 11am work for you? Also would it be possible for Redacted under s.38(1)(b) (personal information), our Redacted under s.38(1)(b) (personal information) who is covering for Redacted under s.38(1)(b) (personal information) while she is on secondment to join the meeting? AGENCY FOR SCOTLAND MAY BRIEFING 11 May at 2pm

BANK OF ENGLAND

Webinar registration

The Bank of England Agency for Scotland invites you to join a webinar on 11 May from 2-3pm.

The Bank of England's May 2021 Monetary Policy Report will be published on 6 May. As well as reporting on the economic outlook on which the Bank's Monetary Policy Committee bases its interest rate and other policy decisions we will also be discussing the content of this report.

Our Agents, Redacted under s.38(1)(b) (personal information) will give an "off the record" briefing on the report and the outlook for the Scottish economy followed by a Q&A session. If you or your colleagues wish to join the briefing, please register using this Link by 6 May. A MS Teams link will be sent out shortly before the event.

If you wish to submit questions in advance or know of others that would like to receive these invitations, please email scotland@bankofengland.co.uk

Hi Redacted under s.38(1)(b) (personal information), Redacted under s.38(1)(b) (personal information),

I hope you are both doing well.

I've just realised that I'm unable to attend our next catch up meeting on the 26th Aug as I'm going to be on leave for a few weeks. I'm keen for the catch-up to go ahead though as Redacted under s.38(1)(b) (personal information) and Redacted under s.38(1)(b) (personal information) can still dial in and I've asked Redacted under s.38(1)(b) (personal information) who heads up our unit (covers Macroeconomic and Fiscal Analysis) to dial in in my place. Hi Redacted under s.38(1)(b) (personal information),

Thanks for sending dates across. Hope all is well with you.

The dates look fine to me. In terms of timing for the 8 Feb and 9 Aug meetings, would it be at all possible to move these to start at 11am? Would just avoid a slight clash. If not possible, there are times later in the day that would suit too. E.g. 1pm, but if slots are tight, we can work around the 10am timing.

If you could send all the meeting requests as Teams meetings in the first instance that would be great given current situation and we can see in due course whether we're ok to do the in person ones at the time.

In terms of copying in, would be great if you could copy to:
