

REASONS FOR NOT PROVIDING INFORMATION

An exemption applies

An exemption under section 38 (1)(a) and 38 (1)(b) of FOISA applies to some of the information you have requested because it is personal data and disclosure would contravene data protection principles.

This exemption is not subject to the 'public interest test', so we are not required to consider if the public interest in disclosing the information outweighs the public interest in applying the exemption.

Exemptions under section 30 (b)(i) and 30 (b)(ii) of FOISA the free and frank exchange of views for the purposes of advice and deliberation apply to some the information requested. These exemptions apply because disclosure would, or would be likely to, inhibit substantially the free and frank exchange of views for the purposes of deliberation.
