

REASONS FOR NOT PROVIDING INFORMATION

An exemption applies

An exemption under 38 (1) of FOISA (personal information) applies to some of the information requested because it is personal data of a third party, ie personal names and contact details of individuals, and disclosing it would contravene the data protection principles in Article 5(1) of the General Data Protection Regulation and in section 34(1) of the Data Protection Act 2018. This exemption is not subject to the 'public interest test', so we are not required to consider if the public interest in disclosing the information outweighs the public interest in applying the exemption.
