Subject: Update - Fireworks and Pyrotechnic Articles (Scotland) Bill

Minister for Community Safety

I am writing to advise that following First Minister clearance, the Fireworks and Pyrotechnic Articles (Scotland) Bill and accompanying documents have been submitted to Parliament today for the pre-introduction period as per the Bill introduction timetable.

In terms of the timetable through parliamentary stages, the Minister for Parliamentary Business spoke with the Committee Convener today and emphasised the desire to have Stage 3 complete in advance of summer recess. We will continue to engage with the Committee Clerks on timetabling in advance of introduction, and will keep you updated.

Let me know if there is anything else that would be helpful.

Kind regards,
