

SG COMMs:

- Social Media – SG News put out a tweet from @ScotGovFairer. Link Scot Gov Fairer on Twitter: "Minister for Refugees from Ukraine Neil Gray visited Birkshaw Tower in North Lanarkshire which has been refurbished with @scotgov funding to provide accommodation for displaced people from Ukraine. He met with representatives from @nlcpeople as well as a family that has moved in. https://t.co/Vw6gzmUooM" / Twitter
- Local Press (NLC) – no press were invited - Nil Return
- Local News outlets re statement (SG) - SG issued a statement at around 14:40 on 25 October. It was issued directly to media and included a quote from NLC. It did not go onto the SG website, but will be in the public domain – Link to article: Ukrainian refugees move into flats following £5m refurbishment | Project Scotland
- Transcript for Visit reflection – This was not organised by SG but will be in the public domain – Nil Return
- Pictures - These was not organised by SG. Any pictures sent to SG COMMs were not retained by them. The Ukraine Longer-Term Resettlement team were not sent the pictures, however the pictures are in the public domain – Nil Return