

Ministerial Event – Scottish Cup Final

Venue – Hampden Park, Glasgow

Date – 25 May 2024

Minister(s) in attendance – Tom Arthur, Minister for Employment and Investment

Supporting Officials – {redacted – personal information}, Active Scotland;

Note of meeting / Key Points

- There was no formal meeting or agenda, but rather informal engagement amongst the guests.
- The Minister met with SFA President Mike Mulraney who described the current work of the Scottish FA as regards looking to deliver significantly increased investment into the sport, particularly at grassroots level, and the impact which football clubs can have as anchor organisations in their local communities delivering a wide range of social benefits.
- The Minister also met with Clyde Chairman Allan Maitland who described his club's plans to relocate back into Glasgow with a view to reasserting themselves as an important community club and asset, SFA Vice-President Les Gray, SFA Non-exec Board Member Alison Macgregor and SFA Chief Football Officer Andy Gould.