Tribunal Determination

An interim compulsory treatment order can be granted where ALL the following conditions are met:

- (a) that the patient has a mental disorder;
- (b) that medical treatment which would be likely to:
  - (i) prevent the mental disorder worsening; or
  - (ii) alleviate any of the symptoms, or effects, of the disorder,is available to the patient;
- (c) that if the patient were not provided with such medical treatment there would be a significant risk:
  - (i) to the health, safety or welfare of the patient; or
  - (ii) to the safety of any other person;
- (d) that because of the mental disorder the patient's ability to make decisions about the provision of such medical treatment is significantly impaired;
- (e) that the making of an interim compulsory treatment order in respect of the patient is necessary

Complete the appropriate option

A: complete if - GRANTING THE INTERIM CTO

The Mental Health Tribunal for Scotland is satisfied that all of the above conditions are met.

The patient has the following mental disorder(s) as set out in section 328(1) of the Act
(Shade ALL that apply to this patient)

- mental illness
- personality disorder
- learning disability

The measures (detailed on page 5) are authorised for:

days from the date of this order
(not to exceed 28 days, and when combined with any previous interim CTO should not exceed 56 days)

Proceed to page 5 to detail measures authorised

B: complete if - REFUSING THE APPLICATION FOR AN INTERIM CTO

- The Mental Health Tribunal for Scotland is NOT satisfied that all of the above conditions are met, and refuses the application for an interim CTO.

Proceed to page 6

Advance Statements

Complete A or B as appropriate

- A  As far as is practicable to ascertain the patient's current/proposed care and treatment is either:
- 1) NOT in conflict with any advance statement made by the patient, under section 276 of the Act, or
  - 2) The patient has not made an advance statement.

OR

- B  The patient has made and not withdrawn an advance statement, which is in conflict with the treatment outlined in this order. Where the treatment is in conflict with the advance statement, detail how the decision was made, and the reasons for it.

Notes

GUIDANCE FOR MEDICAL RECORDS ON INTERIM COMPULSORY TREATMENT ORDERS

Expiry of Interim CTOs

Orders are valid from the date the order is signed above. The order will cease to authorise the measures specified at midnight at the end of the nth day, where n is the number of days the order is granted for (see page 3).

For example:

An interim CTO is granted on the 1st July 2006 for 28 days. The order will cease to authorise the measures specified at midnight at the end of 28th July 2006.

Notification to the Mental Welfare Commission

The Commission should be notified by completing a CTO1a form in ALL instances where an interim CTO is granted, ie including where patient previously admitted on a prior interim CTO or short term detention.

A copy of the CTO6 should NOT be sent to the Commission (the Commission will receive a copy from the Tribunal).
