

FOURTH MEETING OF THE INTERNATIONAL COUNCIL OF EDUCATION
ADVISERS (ICEA), 26-27 APRIL 2018

Agenda

Thursday 26th April
09:00	Welcome from Chris O'Neil, Principal at Inverness UHI College
09:15-09:25	Video message from the First Minister.
09:25-11:00	First session  Briefing part 1 – Update from Fiona Robertson, Director of Learning, on events and activity since the last meeting.
11:00-12:15	Briefing part 2 – Presentation and discussion by Gayle Gorman, Chief Inspector of Education for Scotland, on the new role and remit of Education Scotland and progress so far.
12:15-13:15	Lunch followed by a tour around the new campus
13:15-14:55	Opportunity for the ICEA members to work together to begin consideration of what should be included in the final report of their initial 2 year appointment to the Council.
14:55-15:00	Comfort break
15:00-16:10	Meeting with the Regional Improvement Collaborative leads
16:10-18:00	ICEA to continue to work together to discuss conclusions from the day and how they will feed into the final report.
18:00	Return to the Hotel
19:15	Four young musicians from Fèis Rois to play before dinner at Café Artysans. Fèis Rois is widely recognised as a national leader in the arts, particularly in traditional music education.
20:00	Dinner at Café Artysans, which is an innovative social enterprise café helping young people to develop the skills required for successful onward progression into sustainable work or vocational training.
Friday 27th April
08:45	Arrive at Cauldeen Primary School
09:00-10:00	Tour of the school with DFM and ICEA (and photo op during tour)

10:00-11:30	Second session Meeting chaired by DFM to discuss how Scottish education is delivering on the 3 priority areas identified by the ICEA at the third meeting (improving pedagogy, effective leadership, and ensuring a culture of collaboration) and whether the ICEA has any advice on further reforms.
11:30-12:00	Media with DFM
11:45-12:15	Media with ICEA spokesperson(s)
12.00-13.00	Working lunch for the ICEA Working lunch with DFM and staff at Cauldeen Primary School
13:00-15:10	Final session including ICEA presenting their conclusions to DFM