

SHORT-TERM LETS WORKING GROUP: MEETING 2

PAPER 3: OUTLINE STRUCTURE OF GUIDANCE

Purpose

This paper is intended to stimulate discussion around the structure and contents of the guidance, in order to ensure that all the relevant information is provided and is set out in a way that is clear, helpful and easy to understand.

Scottish Government
March 2021

Do you have paying guests?

Short Term Lets in Scotland

Guidance for Hosts and Operators

With supplementary guidance for local authorities

Scottish Government, June 2021

Contents

Part 1. Guidance for Hosts and Operators

- 1. Introduction
 - a. Overview of licensing and planning requirements
 - b. Timetable
- 2. Does this apply to you?
 - a. Definition
 - b. Exclusions
- 3. Following best practice
 - a. Engaging with your neighbours
 - b. Providing a quality experience for your guests
 - c. Following industry codes of practice
- 4. Do you need planning permission?
 - a. Letting rooms in your own home
 - b. Secondary letting in a control area
 - c. Secondary letting and material change of use
 - d. Making a planning application
 - e. How your planning application will be determined
- 5. Getting ready to apply for a licence
 - a. Who is responsible for the accommodation?
 - b. Making sure the accommodation is safe
 - c. Other steps you must take
 - d. Other things your local authority might ask you to do
- 6. Making an application for a licence
 - a. Overview
 - b. Pre-application checklist
 - c. Fees
 - d. Making a licensing application
- 7. How your licensing application will be determined
 - a. Responding to any objections
 - b. Inspection of your accommodation
 - c. The licensing board
 - d. Your rights of appeal
 - e. How your data will be managed

8. Staying compliant

- a. Complying with licence conditions
- b. Complying with planning conditions
- c. Requesting changes to your licence
- d. Maintaining your accommodation to standard
- e. Inspections and putting things right
- f. Applying to renew or end your licence
- g. Refused applications, suspensions and revocations

9. Glossary of terms

Part 2. Supplementary Guidance for Local Authorities

1. Establishing a control area

- a. Statement of reasons
- b. Consultation and publicity
- c. Ministerial approval

2. Determination of planning applications

- a. Further information on material change of use
- b. Duration of planning permission
- c. Links with licensing applications

3. Publicising your licensing scheme

- a. Application form and information for applicants
- b. Information for residents and neighbours

4. Setting licence periods and fees

- a. Factors to consider
- b. Parameters for setting fees

5. Setting additional licence conditions

- a. Possible additional conditions
- b. Keeping focused and proportionate
- c. Avoiding unintended consequences

6. Handling licensing applications

- a. Notifying residents and neighbours
- b. Checks on applicants, application data and premises
- c. Licensing boards and determining applications

7. Complaints and enforcement

- a. Handling complaints
- b. Taking a risk-based approach to ensuring compliance
- c. Identifying unlicensed short-term lets
- d. Options for enforcement action

8. Licensing data

- a. Managing the data
- b. Public Register
- c. Sharing data with Scottish Government

9. Further information

- a. Links to relevant legislation