

NATIONAL OUTCOMES		ACHIEVING THE MARINE VISION		MS CONTRIBUTION / STRATEGIC PRIORITIES		STRATEGIC PLAN DELIVERABLES AND KEY BUSINESS ACTIVITIES			TARGET DATES			STATUS	COMMENTS	LINK
		What Success Looks Like				Work Strand	Division	Deliverables			2011-12	2012-13	2013-14
DIRECT CONTRIBUTION TO: We realise our full potential with more and better employment opportunities for people. We value our built and natural environment and protect and enhance it for future generations Encouraging and facilitating developments in renewable energy, including wave, tidal, wind energy generation and carbon capture; (in addition to seeking to ensure sustainable fishing and aquaculture activity) encouraging and assisting an environmentally sustainable fishing fleet and fish processing activity; Managing our own activity and assets so as to minimise our carbon footprint, whilst maintaining operational effectiveness. Whilst also contributing to the principles of the following national outcomes we reduce the local and global impact of our consumption and production; <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>we live in a Scotland that is the most attractive place for doing business in Europe;</li> <li>we have strong, resilient and supportive communities where people take responsibility for their own actions and how they affect others;</li> <li>we are better educated, more skilled and more successful, renowned for our research and innovation;</li> <li>our public services are high quality, continually improving, efficient and responsive to local people's needs.</li> </ul>	Building the success of the sectors for which we have direct responsibility to ensure sustainable economic growth, which means <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Growing the overall economic value of the marine environment in a sustainable way;</li> <li>Making a big contribution to Scotland's renewable energy targets;</li> <li>Growing the value of the aquaculture sector, within Scotland's marine 'carrying capacity';</li> <li>Ensuring a viable and sustainable fishing industry;</li> <li>Recognising the needs of, and opportunities presented by, Scotland's sea ports;</li> <li>Providing the framework within which marine-based recreational activities like wildlife tourism and angling can flourish;</li> <li>Promoting thriving and safe coastal communities.</li> </ul> Maintaining or improving the environmental quality and diversity of Scotland's seas through: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Introducing new measures to conserve important marine sites and species;</li> <li>Ensuring that marine planning and licensing take account of environmental capacity and sensitive locations;</li> <li>Working to achieve good environmental status and to meet our other objectives and commitments under the EU Marine Strategy Framework Directive (MSFD), Water Framework Directive (WFD) and Natura 2000.</li> </ul>		Promote the marine renewables industry in Scotland through streamlined planning and regulatory frameworks. Promote sustainable, profitable and well managed fisheries and aquaculture industries in Scotland. Ensure sustainably managed freshwater fish and fisheries resources. Promote sustainable, profitable and well managed fisheries and aquaculture industries in Scotland. Ensure effective compliance and enforcement arrangements. Continue to integrate our functions and resources, and to develop our organisational skills, competencies and capacity, to ensure effective and efficient marine management arrangements in Scotland.		Renewables	Performance, Aquaculture and Recreational Fisheries	Research Implementation Strategy (RIS) published 16/01/2012 Habitats Regulations Appraisal (HRA) Marine Renewables (Wave and Tidal) Sustainability Appraisal - Report Commence Stage 3 marine renewables spatial planning policy guidance, decision tools etc.. Review the Offshore Wind Energy Plan to include additional options within Scottish Waters (0 to 200 nautical miles) Produce a Marine Renewables Energy Plan for Scottish Waters (0 to 200 nautical miles) Scoping S study for Offshore Wind Farm Development in Scottish Waters (out to 200nm) Tidal Scoping Report Wave Scoping Report Wind Plan Consultation			Jan-11	May-12	Sep-12	Mar-13	May-13	Feb-12	Jul-12	Jul-12	Oct-12	Achieved Published 16 January 2012 On Track Due to complete end May 2012 On Track Due to complete end September 2012 On Track Due to complete March 2013 On Track Due to complete May 2013; Scoping out to 200nm published 29 November 2011 On Track Due to complete May 2013; Separate Wave and Tidal Plans to be produced Complete Published on 29 November 2011 On Track Due to complete July 2012 On Track Due to complete July 2012 On Track Wind, Wave and Tidal being consulted on together October 2012 - February 2013	http://scotland.gov.uk/Topics/marine/marineenergy/ris http://www.scotland.gov.uk/Publications/2011/11/28104658/0
	TACKLING CLIMATE CHANGE Managing our own activity and assets so as to minimise our carbon footprint, whilst maintaining operational effectiveness. Whilst also contributing to the principles of the following national outcomes we reduce the local and global impact of our consumption and production; <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>we live in a Scotland that is the most attractive place for doing business in Europe;</li> <li>we have strong, resilient and supportive communities where people take responsibility for their own actions and how they affect others;</li> <li>we are better educated, more skilled and more successful, renowned for our research and innovation;</li> <li>our public services are high quality, continually improving, efficient and responsive to local people's needs.</li> </ul>	Building the success of the sectors for which we have direct responsibility to ensure sustainable economic growth, which means <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Growing the overall economic value of the marine environment in a sustainable way;</li> <li>Making a big contribution to Scotland's renewable energy targets;</li> <li>Growing the value of the aquaculture sector, within Scotland's marine 'carrying capacity';</li> <li>Ensuring a viable and sustainable fishing industry;</li> <li>Recognising the needs of, and opportunities presented by, Scotland's sea ports;</li> <li>Providing the framework within which marine-based recreational activities like wildlife tourism and angling can flourish;</li> <li>Promoting thriving and safe coastal communities.</li> </ul> Maintaining or improving the environmental quality and diversity of Scotland's seas through: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Introducing new measures to conserve important marine sites and species;</li> <li>Ensuring that marine planning and licensing take account of environmental capacity and sensitive locations;</li> <li>Working to achieve good environmental status and to meet our other objectives and commitments under the EU Marine Strategy Framework Directive (MSFD), Water Framework Directive (WFD) and Natura 2000.</li> </ul>		Promote the marine renewables industry in Scotland through streamlined planning and regulatory frameworks. Promote sustainable, profitable and well managed fisheries and aquaculture industries in Scotland. Ensure sustainably managed freshwater fish and fisheries resources. Promote sustainable, profitable and well managed fisheries and aquaculture industries in Scotland. Ensure effective compliance and enforcement arrangements. Continue to integrate our functions and resources, and to develop our organisational skills, competencies and capacity, to ensure effective and efficient marine management arrangements in Scotland.		Aquaculture	Performance, Aquaculture and Recreational Fisheries	Develop a draft Scottish technical standard for fish farm equipment Take forward Scottish Government actions in "Delivering Planning Reform for Aquaculture 2" and report at Ministerial Group Report and response to Permitted Development Rights Consultation Permitted Development Rights Statutory Instrument Scottish International Aquaculture Health Symposium Revise Scottish aquaculture strategy and Working Group Consult on possible Aquaculture/Fisheries Bill			Dec-11	Nov-11	Nov-11	Dec-11	Mid November 2011	Nov-11	Dec-11	Jul-12		Achieved Draft produced (published February 2012). Further consideration/development work underway Delayed Now aiming to report in June 2012 Delayed Ministerial consideration complete. New arrangements to be announced/in force by June 2012. Delayed As above Achieved Successful sea lice symposium meeting held in Edinburgh Delayed Need for further consideration in light of e.g. aquaculture and fisheries bill consultation etc. MGA being re-established June 2012 Achieved Consultation launched 12 December 2011, with subsequent related consultation on Environmental Report and partial Business and Regulatory Impact Assessment. Analysis of main consultation responses underway. Autumn introduction announced	http://www.scotland.gov.uk/Publications/2011/03/14164543/0
		TACKLING CLIMATE CHANGE Managing our own activity and assets so as to minimise our carbon footprint, whilst maintaining operational effectiveness. Whilst also contributing to the principles of the following national outcomes we reduce the local and global impact of our consumption and production; <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>we live in a Scotland that is the most attractive place for doing business in Europe;</li> <li>we have strong, resilient and supportive communities where people take responsibility for their own actions and how they affect others;</li> <li>we are better educated, more skilled and more successful, renowned for our research and innovation;</li> <li>our public services are high quality, continually improving, efficient and responsive to local people's needs.</li> </ul>	Building the success of the sectors for which we have direct responsibility to ensure sustainable economic growth, which means <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Growing the overall economic value of the marine environment in a sustainable way;</li> <li>Making a big contribution to Scotland's renewable energy targets;</li> <li>Growing the value of the aquaculture sector, within Scotland's marine 'carrying capacity';</li> <li>Ensuring a viable and sustainable fishing industry;</li> <li>Recognising the needs of, and opportunities presented by, Scotland's sea ports;</li> <li>Providing the framework within which marine-based recreational activities like wildlife tourism and angling can flourish;</li> <li>Promoting thriving and safe coastal communities.</li> </ul> Maintaining or improving the environmental quality and diversity of Scotland's seas through: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Introducing new measures to conserve important marine sites and species;</li> <li>Ensuring that marine planning and licensing take account of environmental capacity and sensitive locations;</li> <li>Working to achieve good environmental status and to meet our other objectives and commitments under the EU Marine Strategy Framework Directive (MSFD), Water Framework Directive (WFD) and Natura 2000.</li> </ul>		Promote the marine renewables industry in Scotland through streamlined planning and regulatory frameworks. Promote sustainable, profitable and well managed fisheries and aquaculture industries in Scotland. Ensure sustainably managed freshwater fish and fisheries resources. Promote sustainable, profitable and well managed fisheries and aquaculture industries in Scotland. Ensure effective compliance and enforcement arrangements. Continue to integrate our functions and resources, and to develop our organisational skills, competencies and capacity, to ensure effective and efficient marine management arrangements in Scotland.		Recreational Fisheries	Performance, Aquaculture and Recreational Fisheries	Publish freshwater fisheries management good practice guidance Publish Freshwater Fisheries Good Practice Guidance on Stocking Publish a strategy for recreational angling Develop proposals for ongoing modernisation of management of Scotland's Wild Salmon/Recreational Fisheries			Mar-12	Mar-12	Mar-12		Jul-12				Ongoing Stakeholder developed Code to be launched Autumn/ September 2012 Ongoing To follow Code above. Ongoing Stakeholder Study Group Report submitted to SG March 2012 Ongoing In parallel with developing proposals for Aquaculture &amp; Fisheries Bill &amp; following.
TACKLING CLIMATE CHANGE Managing our own activity and assets so as to minimise our carbon footprint, whilst maintaining operational effectiveness. Whilst also contributing to the principles of the following national outcomes we reduce the local and global impact of our consumption and production; <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>we live in a Scotland that is the most attractive place for doing business in Europe;</li> <li>we have strong, resilient and supportive communities where people take responsibility for their own actions and how they affect others;</li> <li>we are better educated, more skilled and more successful, renowned for our research and innovation;</li> <li>our public services are high quality, continually improving, efficient and responsive to local people's needs.</li> </ul>			Building the success of the sectors for which we have direct responsibility to ensure sustainable economic growth, which means <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Growing the overall economic value of the marine environment in a sustainable way;</li> <li>Making a big contribution to Scotland's renewable energy targets;</li> <li>Growing the value of the aquaculture sector, within Scotland's marine 'carrying capacity';</li> <li>Ensuring a viable and sustainable fishing industry;</li> <li>Recognising the needs of, and opportunities presented by, Scotland's sea ports;</li> <li>Providing the framework within which marine-based recreational activities like wildlife tourism and angling can flourish;</li> <li>Promoting thriving and safe coastal communities.</li> </ul> Maintaining or improving the environmental quality and diversity of Scotland's seas through: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Introducing new measures to conserve important marine sites and species;</li> <li>Ensuring that marine planning and licensing take account of environmental capacity and sensitive locations;</li> <li>Working to achieve good environmental status and to meet our other objectives and commitments under the EU Marine Strategy Framework Directive (MSFD), Water Framework Directive (WFD) and Natura 2000.</li> </ul>		Promote the marine renewables industry in Scotland through streamlined planning and regulatory frameworks. Promote sustainable, profitable and well managed fisheries and aquaculture industries in Scotland. Ensure sustainably managed freshwater fish and fisheries resources. Promote sustainable, profitable and well managed fisheries and aquaculture industries in Scotland. Ensure effective compliance and enforcement arrangements. Continue to integrate our functions and resources, and to develop our organisational skills, competencies and capacity, to ensure effective and efficient marine management arrangements in Scotland.		European Fisheries Fund	Performance, Aquaculture and Recreational Fisheries	Manage programme funding Manage FIGG closure Delivery of the EMFF to support CFP reform, data reporting and compliance requirements			Ongoing	Sep-11	Mar-12					Ongoing To date over £57m awarded to 609 projects generating £125m investment, safeguarding up to 7000 posts and creating a further 660 posts in the fishing industry. Ongoing Provide information as identified by the Commission to allow draw down of remaining funding Ongoing Meet wider changes through CSF and potential Scotland wide integration.
	TACKLING CLIMATE CHANGE Managing our own activity and assets so as to minimise our carbon footprint, whilst maintaining operational effectiveness. Whilst also contributing to the principles of the following national outcomes we reduce the local and global impact of our consumption and production; <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>we live in a Scotland that is the most attractive place for doing business in Europe;</li> <li>we have strong, resilient and supportive communities where people take responsibility for their own actions and how they affect others;</li> <li>we are better educated, more skilled and more successful, renowned for our research and innovation;</li> <li>our public services are high quality, continually improving, efficient and responsive to local people's needs.</li> </ul>		Building the success of the sectors for which we have direct responsibility to ensure sustainable economic growth, which means <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Growing the overall economic value of the marine environment in a sustainable way;</li> <li>Making a big contribution to Scotland's renewable energy targets;</li> <li>Growing the value of the aquaculture sector, within Scotland's marine 'carrying capacity';</li> <li>Ensuring a viable and sustainable fishing industry;</li> <li>Recognising the needs of, and opportunities presented by, Scotland's sea ports;</li> <li>Providing the framework within which marine-based recreational activities like wildlife tourism and angling can flourish;</li> <li>Promoting thriving and safe coastal communities.</li> </ul> Maintaining or improving the environmental quality and diversity of Scotland's seas through: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Introducing new measures to conserve important marine sites and species;</li> <li>Ensuring that marine planning and licensing take account of environmental capacity and sensitive locations;</li> <li>Working to achieve good environmental status and to meet our other objectives and commitments under the EU Marine Strategy Framework Directive (MSFD), Water Framework Directive (WFD) and Natura 2000.</li> </ul>		Promote the marine renewables industry in Scotland through streamlined planning and regulatory frameworks. Promote sustainable, profitable and well managed fisheries and aquaculture industries in Scotland. Ensure sustainably managed freshwater fish and fisheries resources. Promote sustainable, profitable and well managed fisheries and aquaculture industries in Scotland. Ensure effective compliance and enforcement arrangements. Continue to integrate our functions and resources, and to develop our organisational skills, competencies and capacity, to ensure effective and efficient marine management arrangements in Scotland.		Sea Fisheries	Fisheries	Negotiate successful outcome to annual fisheries negotiations Further extend measures to reduce discarding of marketable sea fish Publish new UK fisheries &amp; quota management arrangements New CFP arrangements - reflecting Scottish input Introduction of new Stakeholder engagement groups, Fisheries Management and Seafood Development of a new Control Order for Sea Fisheries Cessation of Solway regulating Order replaced by Inshore Fishing Scotland Act Introduction of Scalloping restrictions Luce Bay Revision of CRP - Reflecting Scottish Interests Inshore Fisheries Groups Management Plans adopted. Launch EFF Axis 4 initiatives			Dec-11	Ongoing	Feb-12	Feb-13	Nov-11	Nov-11	Sep-11	Nov-11	Ongoing	Dec-11	Sep-11	Achieved Achieved December 2011 Ongoing Delayed Delayed due to delay in publication of UK Fisheries Concordat. Achieved Achieved January 2012 Achieved Achieved November 2011 Achieved Achieved September 2011 Achieved Achieved November 2011 Ongoing Delayed Delayed due to delay in submission of plans by IFGs Achieved Achieved September 2011
		TACKLING CLIMATE CHANGE Managing our own activity and assets so as to minimise our carbon footprint, whilst maintaining operational effectiveness. Whilst also contributing to the principles of the following national outcomes we reduce the local and global impact of our consumption and production; <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>we live in a Scotland that is the most attractive place for doing business in Europe;</li> <li>we have strong, resilient and supportive communities where people take responsibility for their own actions and how they affect others;</li> <li>we are better educated, more skilled and more successful, renowned for our research and innovation;</li> <li>our public services are high quality, continually improving, efficient and responsive to local people's needs.</li> </ul>	Building the success of the sectors for which we have direct responsibility to ensure sustainable economic growth, which means <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Growing the overall economic value of the marine environment in a sustainable way;</li> <li>Making a big contribution to Scotland's renewable energy targets;</li> <li>Growing the value of the aquaculture sector, within Scotland's marine 'carrying capacity';</li> <li>Ensuring a viable and sustainable fishing industry;</li> <li>Recognising the needs of, and opportunities presented by, Scotland's sea ports;</li> <li>Providing the framework within which marine-based recreational activities like wildlife tourism and angling can flourish;</li> <li>Promoting thriving and safe coastal communities.</li> </ul> Maintaining or improving the environmental quality and diversity of Scotland's seas through: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Introducing new measures to conserve important marine sites and species;</li> <li>Ensuring that marine planning and licensing take account of environmental capacity and sensitive locations;</li> <li>Working to achieve good environmental status and to meet our other objectives and commitments under the EU Marine Strategy Framework Directive (MSFD), Water Framework Directive (WFD) and Natura 2000.</li> </ul>		Promote the marine renewables industry in Scotland through streamlined planning and regulatory frameworks. Promote sustainable, profitable and well managed fisheries and aquaculture industries in Scotland. Ensure sustainably managed freshwater fish and fisheries resources. Promote sustainable, profitable and well managed fisheries and aquaculture industries in Scotland. Ensure effective compliance and enforcement arrangements. Continue to integrate our functions and resources, and to develop our organisational skills, competencies and capacity, to ensure effective and efficient marine management arrangements in Scotland.		Compliance	Compliance	Ensure compliance with national and international marine regulations Develop more holistic approach to marine compliance monitoring and enforcement. Extend remote electronic monitoring / CCTV on fishing vessels Implementation of new EC control regulation Implement recommendations of internal compliance review, including identifying and implementing new compliance activity beyond sea fisheries. E-logbook roll out Build on joint working arrangements with partner bodies to ensure effective delivery, including reduced marine and aerial surveillance costs. (Agreement/SLA with partner bodies.)			Ongoing	Ongoing	Ongoing	May-12	Ongoing	Ongoing	Ongoing	Ongoing	Aug-12	Underway New inspection and reporting requirements being drafted as work emerges. Ongoing New tasks becoming integrated into working patterns. Ongoing 2012 CCTV Fleet monitored. New vessels equipped and monitoring practices in place May 2012 Ongoing New weighing requirements discussed with industry. Other measures being taken forward. Ongoing Revised Coastal Management structure in place. Communications strategy being implemented. New tasks being formalised and instructions disseminated or in preparation. Ongoing Phase 1 (over 24m) 95% complete. Phase 2 (15-24m) underway and expected to be complete by June 2012. Phase 3 (12-15m) underway with target completion October 2012 Ongoing Aircraft sharing well bedded in. Exploratory vessel sharing undertaken February/March 2012 with a view to having a proposal for Ministers ready by August 2012.
TACKLING CLIMATE CHANGE Managing our own activity and assets so as to minimise our carbon footprint, whilst maintaining operational effectiveness. Whilst also contributing to the principles of the following national outcomes we reduce the local and global impact of our consumption and production; <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>we live in a Scotland that is the most attractive place for doing business in Europe;</li> <li>we have strong, resilient and supportive communities where people take responsibility for their own actions and how they affect others;</li> <li>we are better educated, more skilled and more successful, renowned for our research and innovation;</li> <li>our public services are high quality, continually improving, efficient and responsive to local people's needs.</li> </ul>			Building the success of the sectors for which we have direct responsibility to ensure sustainable economic growth, which means <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Growing the overall economic value of the marine environment in a sustainable way;</li> <li>Making a big contribution to Scotland's renewable energy targets;</li> <li>Growing the value of the aquaculture sector, within Scotland's marine 'carrying capacity';</li> <li>Ensuring a viable and sustainable fishing industry;</li> <li>Recognising the needs of, and opportunities presented by, Scotland's sea ports;</li> <li>Providing the framework within which marine-based recreational activities like wildlife tourism and angling can flourish;</li> <li>Promoting thriving and safe coastal communities.</li> </ul> Maintaining or improving the environmental quality and diversity of Scotland's seas through: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Introducing new measures to conserve important marine sites and species;</li> <li>Ensuring that marine planning and licensing take account of environmental capacity and sensitive locations;</li> <li>Working to achieve good environmental status and to meet our other objectives and commitments under the EU Marine Strategy Framework Directive (MSFD), Water Framework Directive (WFD) and Natura 2000.</li> </ul>		Promote the marine renewables industry in Scotland through streamlined planning and regulatory frameworks. Promote sustainable, profitable and well managed fisheries and aquaculture industries in Scotland. Ensure sustainably managed freshwater fish and fisheries resources. Promote sustainable, profitable and well managed fisheries and aquaculture industries in Scotland. Ensure effective compliance and enforcement arrangements. Continue to integrate our functions and resources, and to develop our organisational skills, competencies and capacity, to ensure effective and efficient marine management arrangements in Scotland.		Organisational Management & Development	Performance, Aquaculture & Recreational Fisheries	Manage annual planning, performance monitoring and budget allocation/ management process Contribute to evaluation of the SEARS Rural Hubs Pilot Support Healthcheck Review, develop and implement action plan Consider, develop and implement action plan related to 2011 Employee Survey Ensure follow up as appropriate to PTST Spending Review 2011 Publish Marine Scotland Review 2012			Mar-12	Jan-12	Oct-11	Jan-12	Ongoing	Sep-11	Jun-12	Mar-13	Mar-14	Ongoing	Ongoing Achieved Evaluation complete. Future of project being reviewed. Ongoing Report recommendations being taken forward by MS Board. Ongoing Action Plan being taken forward by the Board Ongoing Action being taken forward in tandem with Employee Survey action plan. Completed Input to Spending Review exercise completed to deadline. Ongoing Achieved	