Social care support
An investment in Scotland’s people, society and economy

---

- Shared agreement on the purpose of social care support
- Support that fits around a person
- Equity of experience and expectations across Scotland
- Change attitudes towards social care support
- Value the workforce
- Look at funding and investment
- Evaluate and learn from data and experience
- Based on human rights
- The purpose and value of social care support and self-directed approaches
- Consistent experience and expectations
- Our systems, processes and decision-making
- The way people access support
- Communities care and support
- Workforce conditions and skills
- Models of care and support
- Our support across Scotland
- The way people are supported
- Co-produce with people who use social care support, unpaid carers, and wider communities
- Investment in care and support
- Commissioning and procurement
Social Care Support
An investment in Scotland’s people, society and economy

- The purpose and value of social care support and self-directed approaches
- Consistent experience and expectations
- Investment in care & support
- Workforce, conditions & skills
- Communities care and models of care & support
- Commissioning & procurement
- Improve data/tacit evidence framework

WORKSTREAMS

PEOPLE'S VIEWS

What are the biggest challenges?

LEADERSHIP ALLIANCE

PROGRAMME DELIVERY TEAM

550 people
55 locations

Investment
Understanding

Social care
Workforce
Sustainability

Shared Vision

Value
Understanding
Access

50% people
100 locations

LEADERSHIP ALLIANCE

SYSTEMS

MAP OF CHANGE
Social care support
An investment in Scotland’s people, society and economy

Evaluate and learn from data and experience

Shared agreement on the purpose of social care support

Support that fits around a person

Equity of experience and expectations across Scotland

Change attitudes towards social care support

Value the workforce

Look at funding and investment

Co-produce with people who use social care support, unpaid carers, and wider communities

Commissioning
Our systems, processes and decision-making
The way we value and understand social care support
The way people are supported
The way people access support
Our support across Scotland and procurement

Workforce conditions and skills

Communities, care and support

Consistent experience and expectations

The purpose and value of social care support and self-directed approaches

Investment in care and support

Models of care and support

Based on human rights