

COVID-19 Scotland daily update

29 April, 2020

Overall update

Here is the daily report for COVID-19 in Scotland for Wednesday, 29 April 2020. For the full dashboard, including comparisons with other countries, please visit here.

Deaths:

The death toll is currently 1415.

The number of new deaths reported today was 83, which represents a 6.2% increase on yesterday's total.

The weekly ratio for new deaths measured over the last 7 days was 1.0. This is not significantly less than 1.

Cases:

The total number of cases is currently 11,034.

The number of new cases today is 313, which represents a 2.9% increase on yesterday's total.

The weekly ratio for new cases measured over the last 7 days was 0.9. This is significantly less than 1.

Cases per capita (measured per 10,000 head of population):

The highest incidence over the last day was 1.0, which occurred in Tayside.

The highest cumulative incidence is 31.6, which is in Tayside.

Health Boards*:

The largest increase in cases in absolute terms by health board was 75 cases, which occurred in Lothian.

The largest relative increase in cases was 4.1%, which occurred in Lothian.

The highest weekly ratio for new cases was 1.3, which occurred in Grampian, Shetland and Orkney. This is significantly greater than 1.

Tests:

The total number of tests reported is 53,082.

The total number of positive cases to date is 11,034.

The percentage of tests which were positive is currently 20.8%.

*To enhance graph readability and to account for cases being reallocated across health boards, the following health boards are grouped together: Grampian, Shetland and Orkney; Highland and Western Isles.

The data in this report are provided by Health Protection Scotland and published daily by the Scottish Government here. This report has been compiled in collaboration between members of the EpiGroup and EERA groups at the University of Edinburgh.

Plots

Confirmed cases

Deaths

Daily confirmed deaths

Cumulative confirmed deaths

Cumulative confirmed cases by Health Board in Scotland

Total COVID-19 Cases in Scotland

Per Capita COVID-19 Cases in Scotland

Tests conducted

Confirmed cases per test conducted

Deaths per confirmed case

Weekly ratios

New cases

New deaths

New cases

