We live in communities that are inclusive, empowered, resilient and safe.

We are well educated, skilled and able to contribute to society.

We are healthy and active.

We have thriving and diverse cultures that are expressed and enjoyed widely.

We value, enjoy, protect and enhance our environment.

We respect, protect and fulfil human rights and live free from discrimination.

We are open, connected and make a positive contribution internationally.

We tackle poverty by sharing opportunities, wealth and power more equally.

By 2045: By restoring nature and ending Scotland’s contribution to climate change, our country is transformed for the better - helping to secure the wellbeing of our people and planet for generations to come.

Our healthy environment supports a fairer, healthier, more inclusive society.

We are responsible global citizens with a sustainable international footprint.

We use and re-use resources wisely and have ended the throw away culture.

Scotland’s nature is protected and restored with flourishing biodiversity and clean and healthy air, water, seas and soils.

We play our full role in tackling the global climate emergency and limiting temperature rise to 1.5°C.

One shared future. One home. One Earth.
